

SHORT STORY – Dr. JAMES CLOUD HICKLIN

By Gene T. Ziervogel

August 27, 2016

Dr. James Cloud Hicklin is my two (2) daughters great, great grandfather. He married Sarah Rebekah Douglass. Their eleventh (11) child Rebecca Isabelle Hicklin married James Byers Douglas, their great grandparents. Their grandfather being Zacharias Hicklin Douglas.

The reason for the change from Douglass to Douglas is that Charles Alexander Douglas said that it was totally improper for a true Scotsman to have two (2) s's in his name, as the Irish do.

James Cloud Hicklin was born to Zacharias and Sarah (Cloud) Hicklin on 27th July 1819 in Blackstock, Chester, South Carolina. He attended the local public school in Blackstock. Blackstock is a very unique town in that the county line for Chester and Fairfield Counties runs right thru the center of town. So I think I am right in assuming that James Cloud grew up in both Chester and Fairfield Counties.

In turn Sarah Rebekah Douglass was born 1 September 1827 also in Blackstock, Chester, South Carolina. Her parents were Dr. John and Mary (Lunsford) Douglass. It is apparent that Sarah Rebekah and James Cloud had met sometime in their young lives and were attracted to each other.

James Cloud Hicklin prepared for college at Mt. Zion Institute in Winnsboro, Fairfield, South Carolina. After graduating from Mt. Zion he attended South Carolina college and graduated in 1842 at the age of 23. He then studied medicine at South Carolina Medical college in Charleston, South Carolina and graduated in 1845 at the age of 26.

Now a certified medical Doctor he relocated to an area around Sharon, York, South Carolina called Blairsville. On October 4, 1847 he purchased part an estate of Allen Crosley that was offered at public sale. It was a total of nine (9) acres including a three (3) acre plat with a four (4) room house all for the price of $189.00. See attached article from "A Historical Sketch of People, Places and Homes of Bullock Creek, S. C.", pages 66 and 67. Also attached is a copy of Deed in Book "O" page 582 -583.

Following his initial purchase of the nine (9) acres and a house, Dr. Hicklin purchased 121 acres for $272.39 which was part of the William Jamison Estate. It closed on the 15 January 1848. See copy of Deed attached in Book "O", page 583 -584. On page 67 of the "A Historical Sketch of People, Places and Homes of Bullocks Creek, S. C." it indicates that Dr. Hicklin purchased 272 acres. This is incorrect. As noted above he purchased 121 acres for $272.39.

In December of 1848, Dr. Hicklin returned to Blackstock, Fairfield, South Carolina and on the 8th December he married Sarah Rebekah Douglass. They lived in Blackstock for a few years. Their first child Mary Lethard Hicklin was born in Blackstock 11 October 1849. It is possible that the second child John Douglass Hicklin may have been born in Blackstock the 28 may 1850 but died 16 July 1852 in Blairsville, York, South Carolina.

The second child John Douglas Hicklin was buried in Bullocks Creek Presbyterian Church cemetery in Sharon, York, South Carolina. The third child, Sarah Jane was born 24 October 1851 in Fairfield County, South Carolina. Dr. Hicklin and his wife Sarah's next two (2) children were born in Blairsville, York, South Carolina. They are George Lawrence born 16 May 1853 and died 7 June 1853. He is also buried in Bullocks Creek Presbyterian Church cemetery. The fifth child Frances Elizabeth was born 5 August 1854. Dr. Hicklin's sister Elizabeth Cloud (Hicklin) Kell is also buried in the Bullocks Creek Presbyterian Church cemetery.

The Hicklin family next moved was to the Clay Hill area of South Carolina and Ebenezer. Prior to moving to the Clay Hill area Dr. Hicklin purchased two (2) pieces of land on the "Rocky Allison Creek" butting up to the "Catawba Indian Land". On the 6th January 1854 Dr. Hicklin bought 131  $\frac{3}{4}$  acres from Alexander Fewell, Deed attached. He must have bought another 8  $\frac{3}{4}$  acres from someone else or the 131  $\frac{3}{4}$  acres was surveyed wrong. Nevertheless, he ended up with 140  $\frac{1}{2}$  acres. The land was not delivered to him until 21 February 1855. The Mansion House and all of the out buildings were included. The purchase price was \$1,550,00. A copy of the Deed is attached. Book "Q" and page 307.

So on 5 January 1855 Dr. Hicklin sold his nine (9) acres in Blairsville including the house for \$400.00 to a Rev. Robert Y. Russell and moved to the "Ebenezer Plantation" in Ebenezer, York, South Carolina. A copy of the Deed is attached, Book "Q" and page 469. Eventually Dr. Hicklin sold all of his land around Blairsville. See Deed, Book "Q" page 490, 1 acre, 2 rods and 12 poles to Dennis Crosley for Eighty (80) Dollars 18 February 1851. Deed, Book "R" page 452 the Rev. Robert Y. Russell purchased 57  $\frac{1}{4}$  acres, the southeast portion of land known as the Jamison Place for \$200.00 on 28 January 1856 and the land was delivered to R. Y. Russell 18 May 1858.

Dr. James Cloud Hicklin, his wife Sarah and his children eventually numbering twelve (12) lived in what my father-in-law, Zacharias Hicklin Douglas, called the "Ebenezer Plantation" for another twenty (20) years practicing medicine and producing children.

The children were as follows:

12. William Lyles Hicklin born 11 February 1871 and died 5 January 1911. He married Lula Blaine. They had three (3) children. He and his wife are buried in Concord Presbyterian Church cemetery in Woodward Fairfield, South Carolina.

There are sixty-one (61) grand-children.

Dr. James Cloud Hicklin was a terrific Doctor but was very bad at managing his money. He was very generous person and would treat a patient even if he could not collect any money. This is what got him in trouble. On the 2nd day March 1868 he filed for bankruptcy. See attached document, Book U, page 789 in 1868. A Mr. James L. Wright purchased all 140 ½ acres after the bankruptcy was approved on 2nd March 1869. See Book V, page 446 in 1869. On the 23 January 1869 James L. Wright concluded the transaction. See attached Article from: "Biographies of York County Physicians" in York County Library under Special Collections.

On the 8th January 1874 Sarah R. Hicklin repurchased 66 ½ acres of the original tract of 140 ½ acres including the Mansion House and all of the out buildings for the purchase price of $780.00. See Book Y, page 722. Mr. Wright had sold ten (10) acres to Thomas Douglass and sixty-four (64) acres to Harry Douglass. Sarah R. Hicklin had also purchased 26 ½ acres from land held in common by John M. Tate and the children of James Carothers at for partition under proceedings in Probate Court.

On the 23 July 1874 Dr. James Cloud Hicklin died and was buried in Allison Creek Presbyterian Church cemetery. Sarah Hicklin continued to live on the "Ebenezer Plantation" in the Mansion House. On the 7th November 1879, approximately five (5) years later Sarah R. Hicklin sold to her daughter, Frances Elizabeth (Hicklin) Miller and her husband J. W. B. Miller the 66 ½ acres and the 26 ½ acres for the sum of $1,200.00. See Book B-2, page 524. I do not know how much longer Sarah and her remaining children live in the "Ebenezer Plantation" but by the 1880 Census she was living with four (4) of her children, Emma Walter, Tommie Vesta, Rebecca Isabelle and William Lyles with her daughter, Sarah Jane (Hicklin) Craig in Blackstock, Chester, South Carolina.

On the 27 June 1910 Sarah fell asleep in Jesus at her daughters and son-in-law's, James Edward and Sarah Jane Craig, home in Blackstock, Chester, South Carolina. See attached obituary for Sarah Douglass Hicklin. She was carried to and buried next to her husband in Allison Creek Presbyterian Church.
