After Wm's death children were of some age, he bought a tract of land near Catholic Pres. Church & thither removed, so that all of the family could worship there. His children were given a portion of the old homestead in Lancaster Co when they became of age, until all were provided for, except the 2 younger ones. He then sold the tract near Catholic Church & with wife & 2 younger children, Reuben & Sarah moved to Washington, Ga. Although Reuben died quite young, he arose to some prominence & was quite popular & was a member of the Ga. Legislature at the time of his death. Sarah married Reuben Hall.
