Following received from Mrs. Walter W. Adams, on 1st July 1985, and who's maiden name was Josephine Hill:
her address: 331 Glen Arms Drive

Compiled by The Media Research Bureau (she then sent to me)
1. DESCENDENTS OF WILLIAM HILL, of Fairfield, Conn., who came from Exter, England, June 5, 1632 in ship, "William & Frances." Data compiled by Eva Loesa Hill Hosley. LIBRARY OF CONGRESS 3106 S6969 CS71.H647 1907

2. JOHN HILL of Dorchester, Mass, 1623 and five generations of his descendent. Also an account of the Hill family of Poundsford, Somersetshire, England. Compiled and Ed. by J. Gardner Bartlett.....Boston, Printed for private circulation by Lew C. Hill 1904.

One of the first bearing the name HILL that came to America was JOHN HILL of Plymouth, Mass., in 1830 (??). His wife was Hannah: their children were: Abigail, Samuel, John, Eliezur, Johnson?, and Ebenezer.

The brothers, William Hill and Thomas Hill emigrated from Essex County, England to Roxbury, Mass in 1632. Thomas died in 1634 without issue. William Hill removed to Hartford, Conn., and probably had no children by first wife, Phillis Lyman, whom he married in 1634. His second wife, the widow Risley, was the mother of his sons: William and John; and his third (3rd) wife, the widow Mary (Warner) Steele was the mother of Joseph, Benjamin, Susannah, Mary, Jonathan, Hannah and Sarah Hill.

One William Hill emigrated in 1633 to Dorchester, Mass., whence he later removed to Windsor, Conn. He was the father of Sarah and William, as well as possibly others.

John Hill of Dorchester, possibly brother of the preceding emigrant William, came to America about 1633 or shortly afterwards. His was was named Frances, and he was the father of John, Jonathan, Frances, Rebecca, Mary, Samuel, Hannah, Mercy?, Ruth, Ebenezer, Israel, Martha and Mehitable?

The brothers, Robert and John Hill (or Hills) are reported to have emigrated about 1635, settling in New Haven, Conn...the younger brother appears had no children, but Robert Hill was the father of Abiah, John, Hannah, Ebenezer and Nathaniel Hill.

Abraham Hill came to Charlestown, Mass., in 1636. His wife was Sarah Long and the children were: Ruth, Issac, Abraham, Zachary, Sarah (died young), Sarah ?, Mary, and Jacob Hill.

The brothers, VALENTINE HILL and JOHN HILL, came from London to Boston, Mass., about 1636. Valentine and wife Frances, had the following children: Hannah, John (died young) Elizabeth, Joseph and Benjamin Hill. By his second wife, Mary Eaton, he had further issue: John and Nathaniel Hill.

The younger brother John Hill married Elizabeth Strong in 1657 and had children by her named: Joseph, Samuel, John and Benjamin Hill.

Joseph Hill, of Charleston, Mass., in 1638 came from Malden, England with his first wife Rose Dunster. They had Joseph, Rebecca, Amy, Mary, Hannah, Gershom, Mehitabel and John Hill. By his second wife, Hannah Mellowes, he had: Samuel, Nathaniel, Deborah and Abigail Hill. There is some evidence that the last two children were by the third wife, Helen Atkinson. It appears that Richard Hill (or Hills) of Charlestown, Mass. (arriving in 1638) was probably the brother of the preceding emigrant Joseph Hill, who died without issue.

Ralph Hill came to Plymouth, Mass., about 1638. He married in that year to Margaret Toothacre, by whom he had Jonathan, Nathaniel, Ralph, Martha, and Rebecca, several of whom may have been born at Billerica, where he lived in the later part of his life.

John Hill, of Guilford, Conn., came from Northhamptonshire, England about 1646. His first wife was Frances and they had John, Sarah, James, Elizabeth, and possibly others. By his second wife, the widow Catherine Chalker, he may have had other children but they do not appear in the records.

Peter Hill came to Saco, Maine about 1648, bringing with him his son Roger Hill, who left numerous children at Wells.

A John Hill (Hills) of Dover, N.H. in 1649 was married to Elizabeth-----?: they had a son Benjamin and possibly others.

Zebulon Hill of Gloucester, Mass., about 1650, came from Bristol, England and was father of: Joanna, Elizabeth, John, Phillip, Zebulon, Mary, Abigail and Sarah Hill.

Luke Hill married Mary Hoyt at Windsor, Conn., in 1651 and had: Lydia, Mary, Eleazer, Tahan, Luke, Abigail, Elizabeth and John Hill.

Brothers Ignatius and James Hill (Hills) came to Boston before 1658. The first married Hannah Henschman in 1662 and had: Hannah, James, Ignatius, and Elizabeth.

Jonathan Hill of Portsmouth, N.H. and Warwick, R.I., before 1661, wife Mary had the following children: Robert, Jonathan and Henry Hill.

Charles Hill in 1665 was living in New London, Conn., having previously lived in Maryland, to which place he had come from Derbyshire, England. In 1668 he married Ruth Picket and had four children: Jane, Charles, Ruth and Jonathan Hill. He married a second time to Rachel Mason but it appears they had no other children.

John Hill of Portsmouth, N.H. in 1665, wife Elizabeth, was the father of Joseph, Nathaniel and Samuel Hill.

Another John Hill was living at Boston in 1668 and his wife was Mary: children were Elizabeth and John Hill.

Still another John Hill (Hills)? lived at Saybrook, Conn., and married in 1670 to Jane Bushnell and by whom he had at least one son, Samuel, and probably others too.

Thomas Hill (Hills?) of Middletown, Conn., before 1678, wife Mary, had the following children: Susannah, Elizabeth, Thomas, John, Sarah and Mary Hill.

About 1680 a Samuel Hill lived in Portsmouth, N.H. and married that year to Elizabeth Williams. Their children were: John, Elizabeth, Mary, Hannah, Abigail, Samuel, Sarah, Benjamin and Joseph Hill. There were many others of the name HILL that came to America in the 18th century, including: DR. Richard Hill, who married Deborah Moore, of Maryland in 1720 and had issue: Richard, Hannah, Mary, Deborah, Harriet, Henry, Rachel, Margaret, Sarah, and Milcah Hill.

FOLLOWING IS MORE MISC. DATA ON HILL FAMILIES THAT HAS BEEN FOUND BY VARIOUS SOURCES.

Note: A Moses Hill died 1763 and seemed to have no children. His brothers were: Thomas, James, Aaron and Samuel Hill.

This is impossible as she was born 4 years before Thomas. She was probably a sister. Thomas Hill was a Revolutionary Soldier, filed application in Kentucky for benefits and later his daughter Nancy Hill (Bennett) filed to acquire his benefits for herself.

Christiana Hill married a Wilson.

Nancy Hill married a Bennett.
