ABRAHAM HILL 3/.

Abraham Hill 3/ settled in Wilkes County, Georgia in 1780 or 1781. By tradition he was of Scotch-Irish extraction. His grandparents (Henry Hill 1/ & Mary Hinton?) moved from Nansemond County, Virginia to Chowan County, N.C. (now Gates

Co.) in 1770 and here his father, Abraham Hill 2/ was born. Abraham Hill 2/ married Judith Hunter and they had 6 children, four sons and two daughters.

The four sons were: Abraham Hill 3/, Henry Hill 3/, Isaac Hill 3/ & Theophilus Hill 3/. The daughters were Sarah Hill 3/ m. Jacob Hunter and Mary Hill 3/ m. a Mr. Easton.

Abraham Hill 3/ married Christian Walton in NC in 1756. He died in 1792 and his wife died in 1808. Both are buried on their old estate in Wilkes County. Their son Thomas Hill 4/ and his wife Sarah McGee, are also buried there as is their grandson, Jason A. Hill 5/ and his wife Amelia Hill. The last two were cousins.

Abraham Hill's 3/ home was very near the Indian line and in 1790 was only 20 miles away from the line. During that same year the Indian line was moved 20 miles further west.

Henry Hill 3/, brother of Abraham 3/, married Sarah Cotten. They moved to Georgia from N.C. in 1787. Henry Hill 3/ died ca. 1800-04 and his wife died ca. 1812-1814. They had four sons: John Hill 4/, Abraham Hill 4/, Theophilus Hill 4/ and Henry Hill 4/. These names are the exact same names as were the sons of his brother, Abraham Hill 3/.

Isaac Hill 3/, a brother of Abraham 3/ and Henry Hill 3/, came to Wilkes County, Georgia but later resided in Clarke or Franklin County, Georgia.
