Entered in March of 1990 by Robert R. Hill Sr. of Brandon, Florida. Updated in December of 1991.

Source of Information: The book entitled "The Hill-Hill Mobley Connections of Fairfield County, S.C.," by George A.
Hill.

HILL FAMILY

One of the observations that I have made from reading the above book was that quite a few families of old Camden District, South Carolina, part of which is today is in Fairfield County, moved southward into Georgia. This article is intended to identify some of the members of the Hill family that made such a move.

William Edward Hill, a son of Richard Hill Sr. and Mary Mobley was born in 1785** and died on 9th November 1862. He is buried in the family cemetery at his old home place near Rockwell Church (Universalist) in Barrow County, Georgia.

He married Elizabeth Cockrell on 18th December 1823, who was born in 1794 and died on 3rd October 1888 in Fairfield County, South Carolina.

William was a soldier in the War of 1812 and served from October 6th 1814 till 7th March 1815 as a Private in Captain Nevet's (Nivitt's) Company, South Carolina Militia. He was described at the time of enlistment as of "Fair Complexion, blue eyes, five feet ten inches in height."

After the war he lived in Fairfield County for a few years, then removed to Jackson County, Georgia, where he lived on Beech Creek, near Jug Tavern, now Winder, and his brother Sion Hill also lived in the same area. William later moved to Rockwell, where he died.

Jackson County, Georgia Deeds:

Book O, Page 543, dated 6th August 1847

Peter E. McMullan to WILLIAM E. HILL for $ 300.00, sold 200 acres of land east of Indian Creek.

Jackson County, Georgia Deeds:

Book N, Pages 382-383... dated 10th October 1848

From Nathaniel C. Jarrett, Berryman S. Camp and Robert Moon, administrator of the estate of Dilmus Lyle, to WILLIAM E.
HILL, 300 acres of land on the north side of Mulberry River, adjoining D.R. Lyle and others....$ 600.00.

He applied on 10th December 1850 for bounty land which he was due for his service in the War of 1812 and was allowed eight (8) acres of bounty land on Warrant Number 19980 under the act of 28th September 1850. On the 23rd of June 1855, he applied for the additional bounty land which he was due for his service in the War of 1812. He was granted eighty (80) acres on Warrant Number 40368. He was a resident of Jackson County, Georgia and aged seventy years.

**NOTE: The 1785 birth date for William E. Hill conflicts with the 1850 census and the pension record differs from both of these. Elizabeth Cockrell Hill's birth date was taken from the Bible Record as 1794, in the pension record as 1808 and the census as 1800.

After the death of William, his widow, Elizabeth Cockrell Hill, drew a pension on her husband's service, the application was dated 15th May 1878, while a resident of Jackson County, Georgia, aged seventy** certificate Number 16257, commenced 9th March 1878 and issued 29th January 1879.

SION HILL

SION HILL, another son of Richard Hill and Mary Mobley, was the brother of the above William Edward Hill. Sion Hill moved from Fairfield County to Walton County, Georgia. He lived close to his brother William Edward Hill (above). William lived across the county line in Jackson County, Georgia and Sion lived in Barrow County, Georgia.

Sion was born ca. 1800-1810 in Fairfield County, South Carolina and died in Walton County, Georgia in 1847.

He was listed in the 1830 Census of Walton Co., Georgia as follows:

theirs, although it was never sold to them.

HENRY W. HILL

Henry W. Hill was a son of Reuben Hill and Elizabeth Ellen Hill. He was born in Fairfield County, S.C. in 1844 and died in Scott County, Arkansas ca. 1890.

Henry Hill first moved from South Carolina to Georgia with the family and was too young to enlist at the outbreak of the Civil War. Also at that time, he was also in poor health, thin and small.

In the spring of 1864, John Crawford Hill, a brother, returned home on leave from the Confederate Army. He was surprised to find that by now Henry was in good health, robust and weighing nearly 200 pounds. This was because Henry had consumed a whole barrel of Peach brandy in a period of two years, and in moderate quantities.

The hogshead of brandy had been buried in the ground for safekeeping and he had consumed the brandy by lying face down and siphoning the brandy with a hollow cane.

John C. Hill felt that since Henry was in good health, and the Bushwackers were active in the area, John felt that Henry would be safer in the army than at home.

Henry returned to duty and took his brother Henry Hill with him. Henry enlisted in Company K, 21st Georgia Infantry Regiment on 28th March 1864.

The regiment was with Major General Hoke when he captured Plymouth, N.C. and who shortly afterwards got orders to go to Virginia to help defend Richmond. This regiment fought in the battle at Drewry's Bluff, then on to Spottsylvania where Henry was captured.

He was transferred around one camp to another, finally ending up in Elmira, New York on August 12th 1864 and stayed there until 14th June 1865, when he was released and returned home.

Henry Hill married ca. 1870 Sally Hill who was born ca. 1848 and whose ancestry is not known for sure, but in a letter in 1949 from a Mr. Clayton, he stated that Sally Hill was a daughter of Alexander Hill and wife Mary. Quote: "Elizabeth was a Hill and her sister Sally married Henry W. Hill, her cousin."

Now the problem with this is that his uncle, Asaph Hill, also had a daughter named Sally Hill who was also born in 1848.

Henry W. Hill moved to Walker County, Georgia and then to Scott County, Arkansas in 1882, where he died ca. 1890. His wife Sally Hill died on 14th January 1905 and they are buried in Weeks Cemetery, located about a mile from the Oklahoma-Arkansas border in Scott County.

JOHN CRAWFORD HILL.

John Crawford Hill was another son of Reuben F. Hill & Elizabeth Ellen Hill. He was born on 1st April 1840 in Fairfield County, S.C., moved to Walker County, Georgia in 1853 with his step-father (Jacob Hill) and his mother.

He married Mary C. Howell in 1861, served in the CSA, 21st Georgia Infantry Regiment, enlisting on 21st August 1861.

Military Records shows that in November 1861, he was sick in the hospital at Sudley Church Hospital, Virginia and the December Roll has him sick (pneumonia) at Culpeper Hospital. He was with the regiment at the battle of "Seven Days" also Second Manassas (Bull Run), Sharpsburg (Antietam), Fredericksburg, Chancellorville and Gettysburg.

In early 1864 he came home on leave and returned to duty with his brother, Henry W. Hill, who also joined the army. John was badly wounded at Drewy's Bluff on 16 May 1864. Records show he was injured in the thigh, admitted to hospital in Richmond and furloughed home.

John C. Hill had the following children:

1. A daughter born 1862, died 1862
2. John Hutson Hill, born 1865, died 1905.
3. Virgil Eugene Hill, born 3 August 1867.
4. Earl Van Dorn Hill, born November 1869, died ca. 1883.
5. Baxter Hill, born 1871 in Walker County, Georgia, died 1886 in Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory.

In 1874 they were in Mississippi where Mary Howell Hill died. In 1876, John Crawford Hill married Amanda Jane Anderson in Walker County, Georgia. died ca. 1883.
