Sources: Various different sources such as "Lost Tribes,"
The Andrea Collection and Records from Chowan County, N.C.

Comment by R. Hill: It is suggested that the reader inspect the Georgia records for Wilkes, Greene, Monroe Oglethorpe and other counties to find the locations of members of this family.

THE FAMILY OF ISAAC HILL 3/ & NANCY EVANS (SEE ABOVE)

As stated before Isaac Hill 3/ was born in Chowan County, N.C. and was married to Nancy Evans. There has been found no listing of children for Isaac Hill 3/ & Nancy Evans, but it is very strongly suspected that a son of theirs was Isaac W., Hill.

ISAAC W. HILL 4/.

Based on the testimony of Isaac W. Hill (of Clark County, Ga.) in his Application (W-3812) for benefits for his service in the Revolution, it appears he was a son of Isaac W. Hill 3/ & Nancy Evans.

Isaac W. Hill 4/ stated he was born on 10th February 1761 in Chowan County, N.C. and he was brought to Wake County, N.C. by his father when he (Isaac) was 6 years old or ca. 1767. He enlisted for military service against the British from Wake County, N.C. at age of 16, (ca. 1776).

A close analysis of this family shows that Isaac Hill 3/ & Nancy Evans moved from Chowan County, N.C. to Wake County, N.C. but the exact time is unknown. None of the other brothers, Henry 3/, Abraham 3/ or Theophilus 3/ had a son named Isaac Hill, no one except for possibly Isaac Hill 3/ & Nancy Evans. Since no listing of their children is known to exist, but since it is known they moved to Wake County, they are the likely parents of Isaac W. Hill 4/ of Clark County, Georgia.

As stated before, Isaac W. Hill 4/ was a Revolutionary Soldier, enlisting at age of about 16 from Wake County, N.C. After the war, he moved from Wake County, N.C. Wilkes to Georgia, later settling in Clark County, Georgia.

He stated in his application that he married Nancy Craine in March of 1784 in Wilkes County, Georgia. He died in Clark County, Georgia in 1828 & in his will he named the following children: (Not necessarily in chronological order)

1. Middleton Hill 4/.
2. Isaac Hill 4/.
3. Roderick Hill 4/.
4. Elinor Hill 4/ m. Mr. Hopkins.
5. Charlotte Hill 4/ m. Mr. Burney.
6. Oliva Hill 4/ m. Mr. Harvey.
7. Eudocia Hill 4/ m. Mr. Anderson.
