

MC.005 ABSTRACTED DEEDS THAT CONNECT THE MOBLEY-HILL
FAMILIES IN FAIRFIELD COUNTY S.C.

Entered in January of 1989 by Robert R. Hill Sr.

Dorcas Mobley, daughter of William Mobley and wife Ann Osborne married William Hill Jr., son of William Hill Sr. (son of Charles Hill Sr., who died ca, March-April 1769 in today's Fairfield County, S.C.).

Fairfield Deed Book H, Page 243, William Hill to Samuel Mobley, 200 acres on Mill Creek, a Branch of Little River (now?) called Bowers Mill Creek. One Hundred Acres (100) was granted William Hill (Sr.?) in October 1763, all sides (then) vacant. The other hundred acres (100) granted William Hill (Sr.?) on 25th June 1772.

Fairfield Deed Book L, Page 170, dated 21st June 1797,
Between Edward Mobley and the heirs of William Hill (Sr.?) deceased, for 210 pounds sterling, paid by William Hill Estate on Beaver Creek, Branch of Broad River.

Witnessed by JOHN E. HILL
Edward Mobley

MOSES HILL, J.P.

END OF DATA