COURTHOUSE IN BOOK "A," PAGES 238, 239 AND 240.
THE SALE IS DATED 6TH DECEMBER 1865.

(NOTE OR EXPLANATION....The following document is very important to the Hill Family for this reason...The wife of Nathan B. Hill was Judith E. (Eliza?) Stewart (daughter of Jessie Stewart & Wilmoth Williamson). Her presence is last known of in the 1860 Census as living with all four of her sons in Columbia, next to the Presbyterian Theological Seminary...Her death date is unknown BUT it is believed that Woodward Hill purchased the old home site FOR HER in March 1863...since it is known that Woodward did not marry until 1866, it is believed that he sold the homesite AFTER the death of his mother, thus her death is estimated to have been the first few months of 1865).
