THE MOORE GENEALOGY

Nathaniel Moore, born ca. 1699 and died before November 1748 (son of the Royal Governor James Moore of South Carolina and his wife Margaret Berringer). Nathaniel Moore married the 2nd time to Elizabeth (probably Webb) and lived on Goose Creek in South Carolina, later moving to the Lower Cape Fear region of North Carolina. Their daughter Margaret Moore married Lt. William Hill.

THE LT. WILLIAM HILL GENEALOGY

A HENRY HILL 1/ of Boston, wife named MARY, were the parents of JOHN HILL 2/.

JOHN HILL 2/, baptized 11th August 1700-died in mid October 1777 (son of Henry Hill 1/ and Mary Hill of Boston) married on 15 May 1722 to ELIZABETH MAXWELL (daughter of John and Elizabeth Maxwell of Boston). John Hill 2/ resided in Boston, Massachusetts.

LT. WILLIAM HILL 3/ (son of John Hill 2/) is said to have been an officer in the British Navy. This writer is not convinced of the fact that it is the same Lt. William Hill as the one that has been claimed to have married Margaret Jennings, daughter of the Virginia Governor.

In any case, the William Hill 3/, son of John Hill 2/, was born on 15th April 1737 and died on 23rd August 1783. He married on 29th September 1757 to MARGARET MOORE (Dec. 1735-3 Nov. 1788) at Old Brunswick Town, North Carolina. He seems to have been the first of this family to settle in North Carolina.

Source of the Following: "Cumberland Parish, Lunenburg County, Virginia 1746-1816 and Vestry Book 1746-1816" by Landon C. Bell (1930), all provided by Mrs. L. Winifred Jacobs of Beaverton, Oregon.

POSSIBLE? CONNECTING GENEALOGIES

The records of Cumberland Parish of Lunenburg County, Virginia shows George Reade (1600-1671) of York and Gloucester Counties, Virginia was born in England and died in Virginia. He married ELIZABETH MARTIN and had 12 children. Among them was THOMAS READE, who married LUCY GWYNNE, daughter of EDWARD GWYNNE of Gloucester County, Virginia.

THOMAS READE and wife LUCY GWYNNE had eleven children, the 6th being COLONEL CLEMENT READE, b. 1st January 1707, who married in 1730 MARY HILL, only daughter of (LT) WILLIAM HILL, an officer of the British Navy.

Comments by Robert Hill: I feel that there has been a mix up, thus causing confusion. The only daughter of Lt. William Hill was named Margaret Hill. There was a Isaac Hill of Virginia who married in Middlesex County, Virginia (Christ Church Parish Records, Page 81) Margaret Jennings on the 28th July 1708. Margaret Jennings was the daughter to the Governor of Virginia, Edmund Jennings.
