

R.002 GENEALOGICAL INFORMATION ON THE MARRIOTT & WARREN
FAMILIES OF SURRY COUNTY, VIRGINIA.

Entered in January 1991 by Robert R. Hill Sr. of Brandon, Florida.

Source: "American Origins," by David B. Trimble (1974) of San Antonio, Texas. This information was provided to me by Mrs.
L. Winifred Jacob of Beaverton, OR & my own research.

Note: Several researchers claim that a William Hill, born ca. 1710 and who was married to Susannah Smithers, was a son of Sion Hill Jr. 3/ & Elizabeth Marriott. Thus the significance of this genealogy. While this William Hill is said to have been Sion's son, others say he was not even related to this Hill family, and which this writer agrees.

This William Hill is said to have been born up in northern Virginia, in Caroline County, while others say he was born in Surry County, Virginia. The dispute continues on to this day, but no evidence has come forth to show that his said father (Sion Hill Jr. 3/) ever went anyplace but remained in & around the Surry/Sussec Counties & later to Southampton, Greenville Counties of Virginia, possibly southward into N.C.

Robert Hill

WARREN & MARRIOTT OF SURRY COUNTY, VIRGINIA.

Thomas Warren was born in England about 1722 and came to Virginia before 1640 with Daniel Gookin, who was probably his cousin. On February 3, 1640, he was granted 450 acres of land on the Smith Fort Creek in James City County (now Surry) Virginia, and was regranted 290 acres of the land on July 3, 1648 1/. He established Smith's Fort Plantation and about 1651 he built a brick house there which was his home the remainder of his life 2/. After the death of his first wife, whose name is unknown, Warren married again in 1654 to Mrs.
Elizabeth (Spencer) Shepherd, daughter of William and Alice Spencer. Warren was caretaker of the estate of Major Robert Shepherd and guardians of his orphans (Warren's stepchildren). About 1658 he married again (3rd time) to Mrs.
Jane King, who survived him and later married Samuel Plaw 3/.

On March 20th, 1670/71, he gave the other heirs their shares. On October 13th, 1671, Marriott sold a slave to George Watkins, and on August 14, 1672, he and Thomas Hart received a grant of 338 acres from the Virginia government. On July 23, 1673, Matthias & Alice Marriott sold the Warren house and 400 acres called Smith's Fort, inherited from her father, to John Salway 7/.

Matthias Marriott made his will on June 12th, 1707, leaving his property to his wife and children. The estate was probated on September 2nd, 1707. His children were as follows:

REFERENCE  8

FOOTNOTE 8 - "Appears good" on paper and is being accepted as PROOF HOWEVER this reference is actually the 1707 WILL for Matthias MARRIOTT, the father of Elizabeth Hill.

This WILL states: "Elizabeth Hill, my daughter," and does not identify her husband. Sion Hill Jr. has been purported as being her husband, but this citation DOES NOT prove what is being claimed! This clarification will impact the veracity of several lineages in the 17th Century Colonial Dames Society and elsewhere.

ALSO, in a recent letter from John Frederick Dorman, a Professional Genealogist and editor of THE VIRGINIA GENEALOGIST, is stated: "There is no evidence in Virginia that a Sion Hill Jr. ever married or had any children."

In all fairness to this "claimed" position, HILL researchers are referred to the HILL Family folder at the Wake Forest University Library in Winston-Salem, N.C.
