

R.040 RESEARCH NOTES MADE IN JUNE 1987 ON WOODWARD FAMILY OF ORANGEBURG-BARNEWLL AREAS OF S.C. THAT LATER WAS FOUND TO HAVE A RELATIONSHIP WITH THE WOODWARD FAMILY
LISTED IN R.039.

Copied into computer on May 1, 1993 by Robert R. Hill of Source: The following was part of my notes taken during my own research on June 12th, & 13th 1987 while visiting the S.C. State Archives at Columbia, S.C. with my son. This is just part of the notes. I have not tried to copy all of the notes as they do not concern this particular Woodward family. Also information on Family Group Sheets received from Mr. John Mobley of Columbia, S.C.

TODAY'S FAIRFIELD COUNTY

At this time (1760s, early 1770s) it is was known as Craven
County, then Camden District, S.C. It became Fairfield County in 1785.

A Richard Woodward bought land from Philip Walker on the 15th of April 1777. Mrs Day and I both suspect this was Richard Woodward Jr. 10/ (tenth generation).

John Woodward 10/, brother of Richard above, sold land to his son Burbage Woodward 11/ on the 5th of November 1790 in Fairfield County, S.C. (as of 1785).

BARNWELL COUNTY S.C.

land grant for 150 acres on 3rd September 1787 in Orangeburg District, S.C. This means he was at least 21 years of age in 1787, showing he was born no later than 1766, and probably before.

The 1790 Census in Orangeburg District, S.C. (included
today's Barnwell, Orangeburg, Lexington, and parts of Aiken &
Bamburg Counties)

Charles Woodward 1 free white male of 16 yrs old
4 white males under 16
3 white free females (probably includes wife

From the above census it seems that Charles was the 1 male 16 and above. It appears that he had 4 sons (under 16) and 2 daughters, or a total of 6 children. The other female listed was his wife Keziah Woodward.

My guess is that Charles Woodward was a married man by 1787 when he got the above land grant and was born in the early to mid 1750s. (wonder if he was a Revolutionary Soldier).

Following Entered in May 1993:
Reference to Charles Woodward of Barnwell County, S.C.:

I am assuming that the oldest child was 15 years old in the above 1790 census, or born ca. 1775, and allowing 2 years between the 6 children, and working back in time, then we would have children born ca. 1775, 1773, 1771, 1769, 1767 and 1765. This suggest to me that Charles Woodward & wife married ca. 1773-1774. Charles Woodward was probably born about 1750-1755 (in Va.).

CHARLES WOODWARD ESTATE.

Charles Woodward probably died in the very last days of December 1813 or very early January of 1814. In these days, the estates were administered very quickly after a death and Charles Woodward's estate was administered on the 3rd of January 1814 by his widow KEZIAH WOODWARD and her bond was signed by (sons or brothers, probably sons?) Charles Woodward and James Woodward. There was no listing of any heirs.

BARNWELL COUNTY DEED BOOK B, PAGE 180 Mrs. KEZIAH WOODWARD, (widow of Charles Woodward Sr.) made a deed of Gift, dated 10 March 1825, to (probably her sons) Richard Woodward & James Woodward, the heirs of Charles Woodward Sr., 1 acre of land for a family graveyard. It was witnessed by Daniel W. Johnson & William Woodward.

Reference to the above deed:
Since Richard & James Woodward were named as "heirs of Charles Woodward Sr." suggest that they were his sons. I suspect that a Charles Woodward (Jr.); a James Woodward; a William Woodward & Richard Woodward were the four sons of the deceased Charles Woodward (Sr.?) and his widowed wife, Mrs. Keziah Woodward.

Note dated 1 May 1993 by me:
In a letter from Mr. John Woodward III of Jesup, Georgia, dated 21st April 1993, he states that Charles & Keziah Woodward had a daughter named Keziah Woodward that MAY have married Robert Rutherford in Baldwin County, Ga. I wonder who their other daughter was?

Andrea says that the wife of Charles Woodward, KEZIAH WOODWARD, was a sister in law of a JAMES WOODWARD, meaning her husband had a brother named James Woodward.

We know there was a James Woodward that moved from the Fairfield County area into the vicinity of today's Barnwell County. I am fairly certain that he is the one that married Annie Feaster.

Maybe he is the James Woodward mentioned in the above deed of gift, but I think that this James Woodward was a son of Charles & Keziah Woodward.

1. A Charles Woodward had a land grant in what is today's Barnwell County, S.C. on the 3rd of September 1797. (Probably Charles Sr. with wife Keziah).
2. James Woodward Sr... had land grant there 7 March 1814. (probably brother or son of Charles).
3. James Woodward Jr. had a land grant 3 July 1820. (probably son of the above James).
4. William Woodward had a land grant 7 Feb. 1814. (thought to be son of Charles).

Following taken from Andrea Collection at U. of S.C. Library:

James Woodward Sr. wed Annie Fasly or Feasler... She is buried at Rosemary Baptist Church and her tombstone reads.. "ANNIE/ Wife of James Woodward/ Died 10 August 1887/Age 93." This makes her born ca. 1794. This James Woodward was the youngest son of RICHARD WOODWARD (# 57) of Fairfield County S.C.

end of Andrea file.

I strongly suspect that the wife's name may have been Annie Feaster of Fairfield County, S.C.! The Feaster family is well known among Fairfield County researchers. From a combination of these two items above, I suspect that James Woodward Sr. and Charles Woodward (Sr.?) the deceased, who had the wife named Keziah, could both be children of a Richard Woodward, who is listed in Andrea's collection under Number 57. Check this out to see if there is a connection to Thomas (Regulator) Woodward's family line!

Later investigation shows that there was no connection to Thomas Woodward, the Regulator.

Notation on 1st May 1993: Mr John Woodward III of Jessup, Georgia provided data that there were children.

1st May 1993:

I believe that Charles & Keziah Woodward had the following children, based on the above information plus what Mr. John Woodward III of Jessup, Georgia says:

1. Richard Woodward.
2. James Woodward.
3. Charles Woodward Jr.
4. John Woodward.
5. William Woodward.
6. Keziah Woodward m. Rutherford ???

I refer to the Andrea Collection below:

74

DATA (RECEIVED) FROM MRS. PAULINE WOODWARD. RICHARD WOODWARD was a son of Thomas Woodward, the Regulator, by his 2nd wife nee Elizabeth Stokes (May).

I shall have to examine all of this data in Winnsboro to see if the above is correct.

end of Andrea Collection.

I have entered the following into the Andrea collection, just below the above:

"NOTE BY ROBERT HILL: The above is WRONG! Richard Woodward was not, repeat WAS NOT the son of Thomas Woodward, known as the Regulator. Perhaps he was the son of the other Thomas Woodward, a Revolutionary Soldier from N.C."

end of my note.

My research notes in June 1987:

The Regulator and his 2nd wife Elizabeth Stokes May had no child by the name of Richard Woodward. It appears that Mrs. Johnson is confused about the father of Richard Woodward being the Regulator. With the help of Mrs. Day, also a genealogist that has helped me on the Woodward family of the Jamestown-Bedford County area of Virginia, we have come up with the following possibility or probability that a Richard Woodward, originally of Virginia, but who settled in today's Fairfield County, S.C., had the following children: (not necessarily in order of birth)

George Woodward m. _____Morgan.
Margaret Woodward... died single and see (# 50).
John Woodward , listed as number 53 by Andrea.
Charles Woodward m. Keziah_____?
James Woodward, youngest m. Annie Feaster.

If we are right in our thinking, he was the James Woodward Sr. listed in Barnwell County, S.C. & probably the brother of Charles Woodward (m. Keziah--?).
