INTRODUCTION.

This particular Hill family obviously had it's origins in Massachusetts, later moving southward into Pennsylvania, Virginia, then into Tennessee and Mississippi.

John Hill 1/ is said to have been married to a woman named Abiah. They were the parents of Samuel Hill 2/, who was the father of a Thomas Hill 3/. Thomas Hill 3/ was the father of Thomas Hill (Jr.) 4/, who was born in Attleboro, Massachusetts on the 19th of November 1724. Thomas Hill 4/ was a Minister in the Baptist Church, farmer and land owner.

Thomas Hill 4/ married Mary Hamlin and who's spelling has been also listed as Hamblen/Hamblin. The death of Thomas Hill 4/ was in Pulaski County, Kentucky, some time after the 1810 Census, the exact date is not known.

Thomas Hill 4/ & Mary Hamlin had the following children:
(not necessarily in chronological order)

REUBEN HILL 5/, LISTED AS CHILD NUMBER 4 ABOVE.

Reuben Hill 5/, was born on the 17th of June 1761 in Pennsylvania. When he was about four years old he moved with his parents (1765) to Fauquier County, Virginia. He married in 1787-1788 Joiasy Hanks 3/, somewhere near Richmond, Virginia.

Joiasy Hanks 3/ was born on the 13th of July 1769 in Virginia and was the daughter of Moses Hanks 2/ and Aggatha (Dodson) Hatter. Moses Hanks 2/ was the son of Luke Hanks 1/. Aggatha Dodson Hatter was the daughter of Thomas Dodson and Mary Neville. Joiasy Hanks was a first cousin to Nancy Hanks, the mother of the 16th President of the United States, Abraham Lincoln.

Reuben Hill 5/ was an ordained minister. They and one son Thomas Hill 6/, were enumerated in Pittsylvania County, Virginia in the First Federal Census of 1790.

In 1797 they migrated into Eastern Tennessee and settled on the French Broad River where they lived for four years. They then moved to Berea Station, Kentucky where they lived for two years and then they moved to Somerset, Pulaski County, Kentucky. They were listed on the 1800 Tax List for Pulaski County on 28th July 1800. Next they moved to near Creelsboro, Cumberland County, Kentucky.

In 1818 they moved to Maury County, Tennessee, some eight miles from Columbia on Duck River, on one of the experimental farms of James K. Polk. In 1883 Reuben Hill 5/ died. His sons went to court for an order to care for his estate.

State of Tennessee, Maury County, March Session 1833:
"Whereas it appears to the court that Reuben Hill, late of this county is dead and having made no will and (a) application being made by Andrew W. Hill (son in law) and Hanks N. Hill to have letters in the administration in the estate of the said Reuben Hill, deceased, (and) having first given bond and security and qualified according to law, the same is granted."
