WITS: STEPHEN KING & WM. MCCLAM..

My Comments: This John Hill that was involved with the Kenans in the above deeds, is thought to be part of a William Hill family of Brunswick Co., Va, who was a son of Isaac Hill, of Middlesex Co., Va., that married the daughter of Virginia's Governor, Jennings.

COURT MINUTES OF SAMPSON CO., NC

COURT MINUTES: 1785, JOHN HILL & WIFE JEAN A LAND DEED

COURT MINUTES: 15 FEB. 1787, JOHN HILL ADMINISTRATOR FOR WM. KENAN ESTATE

COURT MINUTES: 1787, JEAN HILL HAS A BASTARD CHILD
My Question: Was her husband John Hill dead, or was this a daughter ?? See below details from court minutes..

"Jean Hill, having been bound to appear at this court on charge instigated against her for having been delivered a bastard child and refused to make oath to the father of said child, appeared and offered FRANCIS HILL & JESSE LEE as securities for the maintenance of said child, who were approved. Ordered they enter into bond in the amount of 150 pounds. Bond filled."

MY COMMENTS: I believe the John Hill with wife Jean was the administrator of Wm. Kenan estate, and married a daughter named Jean Kenan. NOT PROVED. Notice in the 1790 census she is listed as Head of a Household, just 3 years after having a bastard child. John Hill was still alive. The relationship of Jean Hill to Francis Hill & Jesse Lee is unknown

see details below from court minutes...

"Kenan Estate: On motion ordered that the administration of the estate of William Kenan, deceased, be granted to James Kenan and JOHN HILL; Mary Kenan relict of the said deceased, having resigned her right of administration to the said James Kenan and JOHN HILL. Ordered that the said James Kenan and JOHN HILL enter into the bond of 10,000 poundswith Richard Clinton, David Dodd and James Thompson approved sureties."

My Comments: Since Francis Hill and John Hill were originally named administrators, it appears that Francis Hill gave up that obligation. John Hill continued on and I think he was married to a Kenan daughter (Jean??). Due to the huge bond, it appears this was a large estate.

COURT MINUTES: 9 FEB 1788, JOHN HILL WM. KENAN ESTATE
see details below from court minutes...

"As of February 1788, to divide the Negroes of the estate of William Kenan, deceased, amongst the several persons entitled to a distribution share of the same, we have made the following decision: To Yjomas Norman on behalf of Mary, his wife, late widow of William Kenan, deceased, 13 slaves valued at 1050 pounds, and to pay the estate 1 pound and 2 shillings and 3 pence. TO JOHN HILL, ON BEHALF OF HIS WIFE, 5 slaves valued at 530 pounds and to pay the estate 5 pounds & 15 shillings & 8 pence. To James Kenan & his wife, 6 slaves, valued at 510 pounds and to receive from the estate 15 pounds 3 shillings and 4 pence. To Edward Blackmore, on the part of his deceased mother, 7 slaves valued at 546 pounds 3 shilling and 4 pence, and to pay the estate 22 pounds and 10 shillings. To James Love's children, on the part of their deceased father (mother), 7 slaves valued at 510 pounds and to receive from the estate 14 pounds 3 shilling and 4 pence. Witness our hands, 9th February 1788.

COURT MINUTES:1790, JOHN HILL ADM. WM. KENAN ESTATE

WEDNESDAY 11 MAY 1791, JOHN HILL & JEAN HILL, HILL ESTATE
see details below from court records..

HILL ESTATE: PRAYER OF THE PETITION OF JOHN HILL AND JEAN HILL, HIS WIFE, IS GRANTED AND JOSIAH BLACKMAN, STEPHEN KING, HENRY KING AND NATHANIEL THORNTON BE APPOINTED COMMISSIONERS TO DIVIDE THE LANDOR PRAY FOR AND MAKE RETURNS OF THEIR PRECEEDINGS TO THE NEXT EBSURING COURT.

My Comments: The records is not too clear. No one is mentioned as being deceased, which causes me to think that John & Jean Hill were dissolving their marriage and the land etc.. they owned was being divided up. Remember, a Jean Hill had a bastard child in 1787, and refused to name the father.. I believe this was a result of that incident and the charge against her was bought against her was her husband, John Hill.

The pronlem is, if Jean was married and had a child, why would he ne called a bastard child, unless the husband knew it was not his.. Maybe they were splitting up over that affair.

Wood: Dated 21 October 1794. Trans.: 60 pounds "current money" for 75 acers "Beginning at the Run of Kill Peacock Swamp, On the said Wood's line running with the various courses of the Run as it meanders to the upper Patten line," etc. Tract was "half of a certain piece....of land granted by Patent to FRANCIS HILL and transferred by deed from him the said FRANCIS HILL his Brother" (sic). Wit.: Jos. Slocumb and Noah Smith. (See notes 3, 12, 15K, 21 and 24e).

Comments: This proves a Francis Hill was brother to this Green Hill. I over looked the foot nore by accident but they may be very important.

Comment: Records show us that a Francis Hill, Green Hill & Rchard Hill were brothers and were in Sampson Co., Nc. Also noted was a John Hill with a wife named Jean and a Isaac Hill.

Page 18. Deed: Green Hill to Sion Hill. Dated 24 October 1794. Trans. 60 pounds "currnet money of the State" for 75 acres "Beginning...in Goodricks line." Deed mentions a pond, the run of Kill Peacock Swamp, and Furnifold Wood's and the said Sion Hill Corner." Tract was "half of a certain parcell..of land granted by patent to Francis Hill and transfered by deed from him the said FRANCIS HILL to Richard Hill, his brother." Wit.: Joseph Slocumb & Noah Amith. (See notes 3, 12, 15K, 21 and 24f).

Comments by Robert Hill: This deed definitely shows that Francis Hill, Green Hill & Richard Hill were brothers. I am not totally convined that Sion Hill was a brother. I think they tie into those Surry Co., Va. Hill Family via way of Henry Hill 5/, son of Green Hill 4/ & Grace Bennett. (not proved). This Henry Hill 5/ of Northampton Co., NC is somehow connected to the Green Hill 4/Grance Bennett family.

The Harmon Hill family of Northampton Co., NC had a witness named Hardy Hart and a Francis Hill is listed as marrying him or her.

The NC listing of marriage shows a Francis Hill marrying Hardy Hart, but that is obviously wrong as Hardy Hart was definitely listed as a male witness to the Harmon Hill will (maybe have been son Henry Hill). He was definitely a male, not female.

I will bet he married a daughter of Hardy Hart, who somehow ties into the Harmon/Henry/ Green Hill family of Northampton Co., NC. She may be Nellie Hart??

My Comment: This Abstracted Data is a bit confusing.. I think this mentions Green Hill either sold or gave land to Cook on 22 Feb. 1773 but not sure..

Jerry, you think Isaac Hill was a son of a Wm. Hill of Brunswick Co., Va.. NOT RELATED TO YOUR hILL FAMILY. If so that is another Hill family that connects to the Isaac Hill & wife (??_ Jennings line.

R.161 A HILL GENEALOGY THAT IS FULL OF ERRORS WITH MY COMMENTS.

Received & Entered in August 2000 by Robert R. Hill of Brandon, Corrections based on my own research.

HILL GENEALOGY

NOTE BY ROBERT HILL:

This Hill genealogy is full if errors. It was done by earlier researchers, who often times got persons with same names mixed up with the wrong Hill family. This is especially true with the names of Sion Hill, Green Hill. At times a wrong William Hill with the wrong marriage was given. These errors resulted in much later research.

I have made notations to point out some of these errors.

HILL GENEALOGY.

This is not completely cleaned up. I tried to take out Chapman info you already have it. I also tried to take out sources that related to Chapman information, but may have missed some. I am enlarging this to 18 and sending it plain text.

I hope it does better.

Descendants of Robert Hill

Generation No. 1

1. ROBERT1 HILL was born 1590 in Norfolk, England. He married ANN KINGE Abt. 1610, daughter of JOHN KINGE and ELIZABETH. (I think this is the generation you said was not right)

Child of ROBERT HILL and ANN KINGE is:

2. i. ROBERT2 HILL, b. Abt. 1615, Northumberland,

England; d. Abt. 1682, Surry, VA.

Generation No. 2

MY COMMENTS:

There is absolutely no evidence found to support the fact that Robert Hill & Ann King were the parents to the 1642 immigrant, Robert Hill & wife Mary Webb. Also no facts to show the parents were a Samuel Hill, or any positive clues that he was part of the Sir John Hill family in England. Possibly some detailed research in England may show this to be true. Based on evidence found, Robert Hill & wife Mary Webb should be listed as 1st known generation, which changes all the following generations.

Robert R. Hill

2. ROBERT2 HILL (ROBERT1)1 was born Abt. 1615 in Northumberland, England, and died Abt. 1682 in Surry, VA. He married MARY WEBB2 1642, daughter of STEPHEN WEBB and ANN. She was born Bef. 1622 in Kent England3, and died Abt. 1694 in Surry, Va4.

Notes for ROBERT HILL:

Robert and Mary were said to have immigrated to Isle of Wight Co., Va from England in 1642. Some researchers say that Robert was the son of Samuel Hill, who was a member of the so-called Sir John Hill Family. This has by no means been proven or documented. In that family Ralph Hill, a son of Samuel is said to have emigrated to New England, while Robert the younger brother of Ralph Hill is said to have come to Va. Greer's Early Immigrants to Va refers to Stephen Webb as the possible father of Mary. In 1653 Robert and Mary acquired land from George Arthur in Va. (source Sharon Herrington) note that my other source suggests a different father for Robert.

Notes for MARY WEBB: Transported to Isle of Wight Co., Va 1642 with Robert Hill
