Brandon, Fl.

SOURCE: The Magazine entitled South Carolina Magazine of Ancestral Research, Volume VI, No. 1, Page 30. Also the Perpetual Calendar was often used to obtain what day of the week the events occurred. In some instances, that day was printed in the records.

Also the Perpetual Calendar 1 AD-2400 AD of the Smithsonian Institution Physical Tables, 9th Revision ed. p.732 in 1956 was used to obtain what day of the week certain events took place.

The Following were taken from Marriage & Death Notices from the Wesleyan Journal.

"Died on Sunday, 11th September, (1825) at his residence in Williamson County, Tennessee, the venerable Rev. Green Hill, of North Carolina and volunteered as a private, but was later chaplain. In 1799, he removed to Williamson County and settled there, where he died...Nashville Republican.

Green Hill Sr 4/ & Grace Bennett.

Hitt (Hill), of Washington County, Md., in the 58th year of his age, Rev. Daniel Hitt (Hill), formerly Agent of the believed to be HILL).

In giving this list of Persons Massacred in this Province, we have confined us to 96 District, the Southern part of Camden District and the upper parts of Orangeburg District, with five in Charleston, IT can be safely (sic) said that at the least thrice the number have been Butchered and Hanged in like manner---not one of those named fell in Action, but were killed at their plantations, or after they had been made Prisoners---we would particular arise the circumstances but think it an unnecessary Intrusion upon your time.
