"The Virginia Genealogist," Volume 23, Number 2, April-June 1979 page 125, states that Surry County was formed in 1652 from the portion of James City County that was south of the James River. It ran from the river (southward) to the North Carolina border.

On Page 127 of same book, it states that Sussex County Virginia was created in 1754 from the southern portion of Surry County. Southward Parish was formed in 1647 and Albemarle Parish was formed in 1742.

Note: This is son of Richard Hill Jr. 4/ & wife Margery Gilliam, who married in 1742. She was daughter of William Gilliam. William Gilliam Hill was born 1746, died 1764.

NOTE: Thomas Hill and Eliza of Sussex County (Albermarle Parish) had a daughter Amy. The records begin in 1739 and it seems that possibly this Thomas Hill is the same mentioned in Botetourt County Records. Note that this Thomas and Eliza had a son Moses Hill. (Later info makes me think this was Thomas Hill 3/ & wife Elizabeth Gray). (Not proved).

NOTE: A Burril Hill married Mary Boone in Sussex Co., Virginia in March 1774, (see earlier S.C. birth of son Peter). It appears that the Burril Hill in Va. and S.C. were different men.

Another Burwell Hill married Maria Shehorn on 8th January 1816 in Greenville County, Virginia. (Reference Virginia Marriages on page 255, author's name not given).

Albermarle Parish, Sussex County, Va. records shows a Burril Hill married in Virginia in 1774 to Mary Boone.

Burril Hill may have moved into S.C. ? Later information in S.C. shows a Burrill Hill (in Fairfield Co.) was son of Charles C. Hill Jr., who was from Pennsylvania.

(Reference to Burril Hill: S.C. History and Genealogical Magazine, Vol. 17, page 451-Parish Register shows James Santee, Peter (Hill) son of Burril and Martha Hill, born March 1st, Baptized November 10th under heading of 1768. (Some other listings under this heading specify birth was 1766/67. Burril's occupation listed as carpenter).

NOTE: I have (or had) a letter from Brent Holcomb that stated a Thomas Hill of (Sussex County Virginia) purchased land from a Burwell Hill, now residing in S.C. I have mislaid the letter so cannot give specifics, but remember it quite well and this would seem to connect one Burwell Hill to the Surry County Virginia Hill Family.

(Reference S.C. History & Genealogical Magazine, Vol 1, page 56, in 1775 Burril Hill serving under Captain William Cattell.
