EXCERPTS FROM: JOSHUA HILL FOSTER PAPERS, ALABAMA STATE ARCHIVES, FROM ACCOUNTS OF THE HILLS, AS TOLD BY JOSHUA HILL TO HIS GRANDSON JOSHUA HILL FOSTER.

"William Hill, the father of Joshua Hill Sr, was the son of _____ Hill (most probably William Hill, as Joshua Hill remembers) was born in Middlesex County, Virginia in the spring of 1700. The said William Hill had but one brother, whose name was JOHN, but many sisters, one of whom married a DUDLEY-one a WHITIKER-one a PANNELL in Amherst (County)-one a Smither. He, the said William married in King George, (County) Virginia, SUSAN SMITHER, & settled in Caroline County, Virginia, where were born of said marriage ten sons and one daughter. These children were JOHN HILL (who died young), WILLIAM, the Clergyman, ELIZABETH, who married Holbert & settled in Pendleton County, South Carolina. THOMAS who died in Georgia, ROBERT, who lived & died in Stokes County, North Carolina, UEL, who lived & died in Abbeville, South Carolina, having no male issue. DAN, who lived & died in Williamson County, Tennessee. JESSE, who lived & died in Edgefield, South Carolina. JAMES, who died in his youth. JOEL & JOSHUA, who were twins. JOEL moved to North Alabama & then died."

"The father of the first named William, was born in Maryland & moved to Virginia."

"John, the brother of said William, lived in AMELIA COUNTY, VIRGINIA & there died, leaving many sons, among them ISAAC, JOHN, a mechanic, WILLIAM, a calico printer." (HE LEFT OUT MOSES HILL, WHO IS NAMED IN WILL). (REF: AMELIA CO., VA. WILL BOOK 3, PAGE 28-30, Wrote 11 February 1777, proved 15th September 1779).

"The said William first migrated from Caroline County, Virginia to Stokes County, N.C. (then Surry Co.) with all his sons in 1772."

"1. _____ Hill born in Maryland, married in Virginia (Hampshire) died in middle life & had two sons (as below) & several daughters." Note by Robert Hill of Brandon, Fl.: Hampshire County is in today's West Virginia.

"2. WILLIAM HILL born 1700 in Middlesex County, Virginia, married a widow in same county. She had a grown son, morning after marriage brought her apron full of money & poured it in his lap saying "give my son 50 pounds out of that"-removed to North Carolina in 1772-died in 1787."

"3. WILLIAM HILL 2nd child of William Hill- a baptist preacher in Revolution-encouraged soldiers."

"John Hill, child of William Hill, wild, stout, fighting cr. (crazy?) moved to Nashville-afterwards to Kentucky."
(Note by R. Hill: This quotation sounds very familiar with a John Hill, son of William Hill and Hanniniah Elizabeth Halbert).

4. William Hill (son of William Hill) Secretary of State in North Carolina married a widow Blount." Note by Robertt Hill of Brandon, Fl.: That name of Blount seems to possibly relate to a Whitmell Hill family in N.C. and does not seem to be the Rev William Hill, son of William Hill Sr. & wife Susanna Smither. I thought it was Rev William Hill Jr that was Secretary of State?

"James Hill (son of William Hill) married daughter of Col. Hunt, who lived on the Yadkin, died with s. pox (small pox) about close of Revolution."

"Robert Hill captain in Rev. (Revolution)."
