Notes: (con't)James Senior Hindman another says born Ballymoney, Antrim, Northern Ireland and married 1785, no source on 1820 census he has 3 sons and 3 daughters

on 1810 census he has 5 sons and 4 daughters
on 1800 census he has 3 sons and 3 daughters based on census study, guess girls bdays to be 1790-1794, 1794-1795, 1795-1800, 1805-1810 ... two boys undefined born abt 1800 and 1802-1804 children's names taken from will 1827 cannot find him on 1790 census, find John & Samuel in Spartanburg well document John Hindman arrived 1772, has land patent, has children in Spartanburg that have similar names (causing much confusion) as James Sr. (brother?) Woodward city, Fairfield county, SC is 160 miles NW of Charleston, between Colombia & Charlotte did not find JH or wife on DAR or SAR naturalization index says fr Ireland in 1787, nat 15 Nov 1814 along with Robert Hindman (brother?)

Hindmans in Pennsylvania and Maryland, not related (?)

James Junior Hindman

another researcher say b. 1792 USA and died in GA

Letticia Hindman

there is a letticia 1802-1840 buried in PA

Sarah Hindman

1850 census mortality table has sarah hindman b. 1895, d. Feb 1850 age 55, widow, do not know if Hindman is married or birth name

Alexandar N. Hindman

He inherited the plantation at father death in 1828. His will left 707 acres (on Dumpers? Creek) and 18 slaves for the benefit of two daughters. No mention of wife or siblings. Executor Stevenson.
There is tombstone for "Mary Ann Hindman, consort of A N Hindman, d. 1849." Assume to be his wife

William Hindman

Geni.com: 27 Aug 1805 Farifield SC - 21 Jul 1871 Atoka TN, md Mary Caskey

John Hindman

option for death 1870 in Seneca, Ocone, SC on mortality table

Robert Hindman

possibly have him mixed up with a cousin another researcher has son Robert b. 1787 in Ireland. There is a Robert who was naturalized with James in 1814, could this be this son??
