(Rev. William Martin And His Five Shiploads Of Settlers)

By
JEAN STEPHENSON

"To the Printers of the Belfast News Letter.

I desire you will insert and continue three times in your Paper, the inclosed Letter, which I received from South Carolina.

Yours,

Larne, 21 Dec. 1772

JAMES McVICKAR.

P. S. My Friend in Charlestown advises me, that they have a great Crop of Rice, but want Ships to carry it to Market.

To Mr. JAMES McVICKAR, Merchant in Larne.

'SIR,

Charles-Town, Oct. 21, 1772

THESE will inform you, that we arrived here all well and in good spirits the 18th instant (five Children excepted who died in the Passage) after a pleasant and agreeable Passage of seven weeks and one day. — Pleasant with respect to Weather, and agreeable with regard to the Concord and Harmony that subsisted among us all: And, to confirm what we have heard you assert, before we left Ireland, we must say, that we had more than a sufficiency of all kinds of Provisions, and good in their kind: And to speak of Captain Workman, as he justly deserves, we must say with the greatest Truth (and likewise with the greatest Thanks and Gratitude to him) that he treated us all with the greatest Tenderness and Humanity: and seemed even desirous of obliging any one, whom it might be in his Power to serve. If you think proper, we would be desirous you should cause these Things to be inserted in the public News Letter, being sensible they will afford our Friends and Acquaintances great Satisfaction; and we hope they may be of some Use to you and Captain Workman, if you resolve to trade any more in the Passenger Way. Now in Confirmation of these Things, we subscribe ourselves as follows:

It should be noted that the surnames of "Robt. McClintock" and "Timothy McClintock" appear in the Council Journal as "McLinto," "Robert Hadden" becomes "Robert Hadin," and "Thomas Madill" is "Thomas McDill." These variations indicate the dialect pronunciations used and therefore aid in identifying these passengers in subsequent records.

Charles Dunlop, Hugh Mansoad, James Young, and Robt. Machesney are not included in the list of those persons arriving on this vessel to whom warrants for land were issued. However, Robert's son, Alexander Chesney is listed. This is the Alexander Chesney who was a well-known Loyalist during the Revolution and who ultimately returned to Ireland. From his *Journal*¹¹ we learn that his father did not apply for free land but instead bought it, thus accounting for his name not appearing on the list. From the same Journal we learn a little about the trip. He says that the smallpox had been severe on the vessel and when the surgeon came on board and reported it to the Governor "we were obliged to ride at quarantine first three weeks, and then a second three weeks and 8 days * * *"

"We had a large house during Quarantine allowed for the sick on Sullivans Island which was kept for the purpose of a hospital; one Robinson has a salary from the Government for living there. We went back and forth from hospital to ship for a change. * * *"

⁶ The Council Journal clearly gives the name as "William," and the acreage to which he is entitled as 100 acres. However, the survey states there was laid off for him 150 acres bounded in part by John Barlow's land, and at the same time 100 acres were laid off for John Barlow on a precept for survey dated 6 January 1773. John Barlow is not listed as being given land at this time. He was already in South Carolina. He may already have had land and William had bought or been given 50 acres of it and it was divided at the time William's land was laid off to him.
