ARMY SEPARATED 51 years, OLD VETERANS HUG AND REEF.

Russell Tells of Capt. Hogan's Assault on Yankee Camp during Civil War.

For the first time in 51 yr., Capt. J.D. Hogan and W.K. Russell, members of Hampton's scouts met in Birmingham Wednesday afternoon. The old comrades rushed into each other's arms and there were tears of joy in their eyes as they embraced after years of separation.

They were accompanied by James B. Willis of Fountain Inn, S. Carolina and they held a reunion.

Mr. Russell told this story; "Capt. Dick Hogan and a little band of scouts, about 40 in number, crawled through the enemy lines and into the camp of a Michigan brigade of cavalry which was encamped on the Smith farm in Stafford County, Virginia in 1863".

"We crawled into the camp on our hands and knees", said Mr. Russell, "Crawling more than 300 yards through this brush and past the sentry, we arrived at the brigade headquarters where the flag floated over the general's tent. It was about midnight and chilly. The sentry paced back and forth in front of the tent, and had a big roaring log fire".

Suddenly Capt. Hogan rose within ten (10) feet of the sentinal and demanded the surrender of the camp and followed his demand with a shot which brought down the sentry. The general in command opened the flap of his tent and peeped out, his bald head glistening in the night. A shot rang out and the general fell dead as a bullet crashed through his brain. In the meantime the surprised troops rallied and a hand to hand conflict started. Hogan fell in a few minutes, shot through the right lung. He pitched forward with his head almost in the fire. W.K. Russell, then a boy of 17 years, pulled him out of the fire".

"The fight raged on. Soon the Yankees began to yell "We surrender". At least 500 of them stacked their arms before the fire. However, the captain of one of their companies showed that he was a soldier. He rallied his company, which had been some distance from the fire, and advanced pouring a volley into us and we had to retreat."

"Russell to command and the retreat started. The colonel of the Yankee regiment ran for his horse and attempted to cut it loose from a tree to which it was tied. One of the boys fired at him and he dropped, the same bullet cutting his jugular vein and killing his horse."

"Russell picked up Hogan and the party retreated to a branch where they stopped to get water. Hogan, who had apparently been dead, feebly asked for a drink of water, and asked us not to let the rascals get him. Three or four of us got Hogan into a saddle and I rode behind him. We rode five or ten miles to Capt. Charles Tagyarts house where we were compelled to stop for the night. The next day the Yankees started in pursuit. We made a litter from two fence rails and escaped to the pine thickets.

Soon we found the ruins of an old log cabin. Only one corner of the house stood, the rest having decayed. A part of the roof sheltered this nook. Here we put Hogan and he remained there two months until his wounds healed without medical attention. The only attention he had was the nursing of

Russell and Barney Henderson, a member of a prominent South Carolina family. He improved so rapidly that in two months we moved him to the house of a Mrs. Humphries, where at the direction of Gen. Wade Hampton, Dr. Jankin, a surgeon, visited him. Gen. Hampton stated that if necessary he would hold his whole force and move Hogan into the Confederate lines. However

William Hogan

State of South Carolina
District of Fairfield

On this second day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty two personally appeared in open court before the Honorable William D. Martin one of the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas and General Sessions of the State of South Carolina, William Hogan, a resident of Marshaw in the State aforesaid aged seventy two years, who being first duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath, make the following declaration, in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed June 7th 1832.

Deponent was born in South Carolina not far from Chucaw Hill on the 9th day of September 1760. His father had all his childrens ages set down on a piece or sheet of paper which went into the possession of James Hogan deponents oldest brother. Has often seen the papers in the brothers possession and was informed by his brother that it had been lost or destroyed. His inquiry made some time after the revolutionay war and on the death of one of deponents sisters, which occurance gave rise to the inquiry. Has no other means of knowing his age.

When called into service deponent was living on the Watree in Fairfield District, about five miles from winnsborough East. Lived there after the revolutionary war until about twenty years ago (1812) then moved to Sandy run in Kershaw District; lived there about five years (until 1817), then moved to twenty five mile Creek in Kershaw District, has lived there and within two or three or four miles of that place ever since. Now lives on Bear Creek near twenty five mile Creek in Kershaw District.

In the first tour of military duty performed by deponent. he volunteered in Captain Woodward's company, believes Philip Redford was first Lieutenant and John Milling commanded as Captain Woodward did not go and believes John Winn commanded the regiment and was along. Company, rendezved at Winnsborough (now Fairfield Court house) marched to Captain Tunmen in the fork between Saluda and Broad River called the dutch fork; went there after a body of Tories said to be embodied there. They disbanded on hearing of this enterprise, and some plunder was retaken. Captain Heincock was along and company. The greater part of this body of militia were drafted. Thinks James Wilson who deponent has understood has applied for a pension was along. Were out two weeks on this tour. This tour immediately preceeding the next tour to Florida. But a few days at home in the interval which was spent in preparations.

The next time went to Florida. Does not recall the year. Went as a volunteer. Some were drafted. Capt. John Woodward commanded the company. James Wilson above was in the same company and he and Captain Woodward went. _____ was in that expedition under Captain John Graves. But John Winn was along and commanded the regiment. The company met Major Goodwyn and men near Grealy and some other troops. All marched through Augusta and on to the St. Mary River. Fell in with General Williamson and men before they got to the St. Mary. General

Williamson commanded the Winn army until they crossed the St. Mary. A dispute arose there among the officers who was entitled to command seeing they were then out of the states. Col. Winn and 300 men were sent on to the St. John's river but were prevented by the bridges being taken away by the enemy. There were some regular troops encamped below on the St. Mary's. Deponent was led by curiosity to go and see the place of encampment, half mile from the place of militia encampment. The object of the expedition was to take Augustina as deponent had understood. Encamped some time on the St. Mary's. Col. Winn in his return to the St. Mary met with McGirt and party of Indians. Took no prisoners. Got McGirt's horse and found by markers in the saddle bags that it was McGirt and party they had destroyed. Troops very sickly and a great many died of the flux. When the army returned each Captain took charge of his company. Was three months and six days on this tour. The British believed Burns had burnt his fort on St. Mary and fled before the army arrived. It was said that Burns was tared and feathered by the Americans for refusing to sign Independence Resolutions and was called burnt foot Burns from the circumstance that fire had been put to his feathers.

The next tour was under General Sumpter when he took the Congaree fort or Mcaquills fort as sometimes called as believed. Captain John Woodward had resigned and one John Miles Hill whose father had been hung by the British had the command of the company. Thomas Tuyer was in this tour and Capatli Cook. This before the battle of Eutaw (Sept. 7, 1781). The Fort was taken before the deponent got there; the day before. Lay on the tour sometime after the fort was taken. Out three weeks or more on this tour.

The next tour went to monks corner between Orangeburg and Charle Deponent had been elected first lieutenant in Captain John Woodward's old company, then commanded by Captain Bathary and was drafted. It was deponents turn to go, with a part of the company. Was placed under the command of Captain Cook. Marched to Ancuris place on the Congaree. Joined other companies at Ancurias. Colonels Thompson and Goodwin were there. Thompson had command. At Biggins Church was met by a party of British horse. Major Hampton horse met them and took eleven prisoners. Went on to the big church near Monks Corner where a party of British were posted. They all fled before the troops came up, after burning the church, and went to a brick house near, where another party of British were posted. The militia fired on the brick house sometime without driving the enemy and then went into Col. Thompson's plantation. Gen. Marion had joined by this time. Lay at Thompson sometime. Were discharged at Thompsons. Was out on this tour one month. This before the Eutaw Battle.

The next tour was to the Saltlatcher. General Marion was there, Richardson and Col. Thompson. This wasn't long before the Eutaw Battle. And old man William Moore took sick and deponent was allowed to bring him home. Did not know then that the Eutaw or anyother battle was approaching. Out one month on this tour. Was 1st Lieutenant this tour.

Next tour to Orangeburg after the Battle of Eutaw. Col. Thompson there, also Sumpter. Stayed there three months and until discharged.

Deponent was out another tour which ought to have been mentioned between his third and fourth tour. Was first lieutenant then, was encamped on the Congaree. Major Ananias Lyles principally commanded. Lay there about three weeks. Was out one month on this tour. Place called New Market where encamped. Was out on short tours against the Tories frequently during the war. At one time a Tory named James Humphrey was killed by one soldier who placed it to deponents credit. In this tour was out one week. Never received a written discharge. None of the militia ever did. They were discharged verbally by the Captain. James Wilson and Camon Cannon are all that deponent now knows living who can testify to any part of deponents service. Immanuel Tayler and Dr. Jasper Faust may.

Deponent was out in service whenever called on, and is fully satisfied that he served on tours that he does not now recollect particularly. He never received a commission as first Lieutenant but was only elected by the company and acted as such, and was obeyed and respected as such. Deponent does not recollect of one officer of a company of militia being regularly commissioned. Some may but none that he knew of.

Deponent is sure that he served in all more than six months, probably seven months as First Lieutenant (in company commanded by John Woodward before he resigned, commanded by Capt. Bethany when deponent was the First Lieutenant), and that period fully in actual service, but cannot specify at this time all the different tours nor the exact length of each. Deponent is also satisfied that all his tours of actual service he was engaged in, as a private, first and then as first lieutenant fully equals twelve months.

He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present, and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any state, excepting that of South Carolina. Deponent drew his pension from South Carolina on the 2nd day of March 1832. Due as deponent undersigned the 1st of March 1832. Sworn to therefore the day and year aforesaid in open court.

William Hogan (signed)

I, Elliott CCP Th Liseo

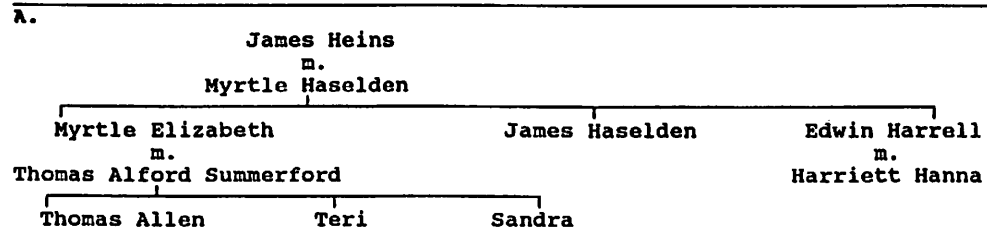

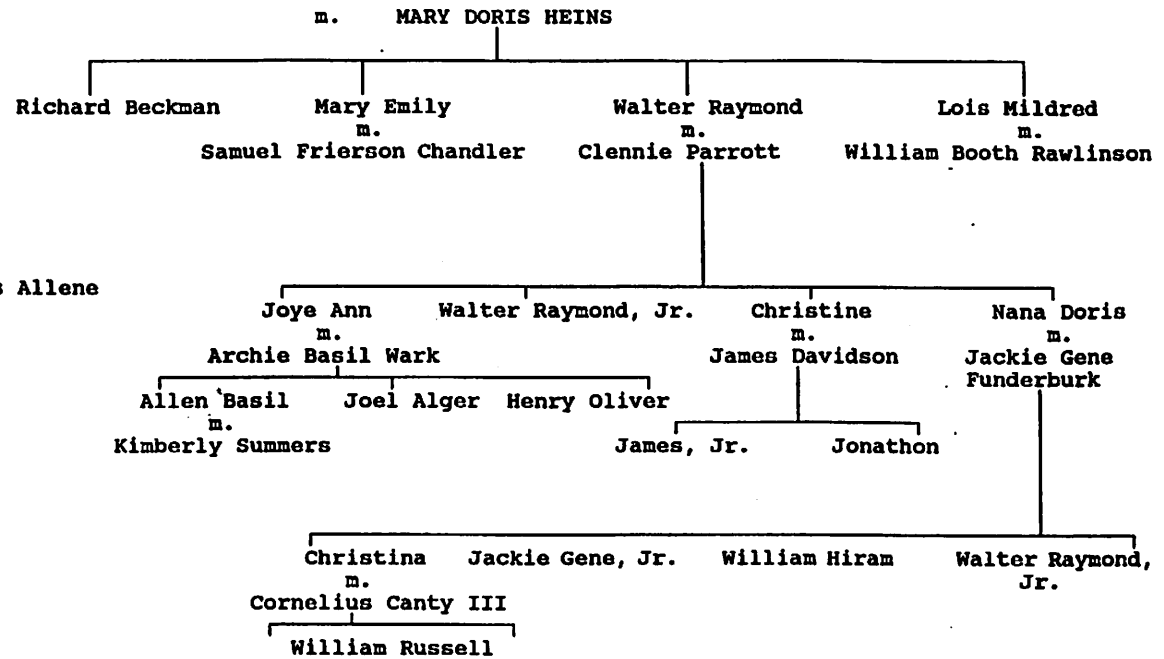

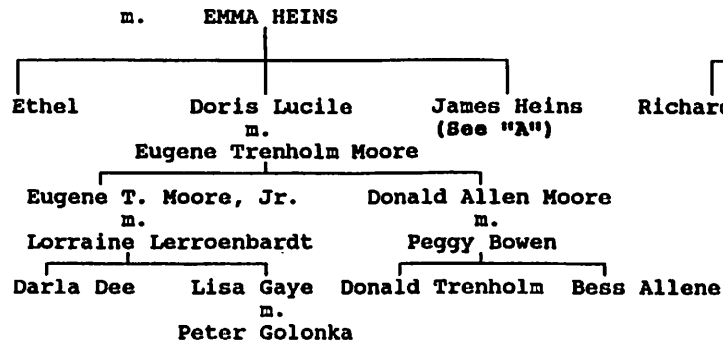

We, Dr. Jasper Faust, James Wilson and Jerimah Taylor, the first named of Richland District, and the two last of Fairfield District hereby certify that we are well acquainted with William Hogan who has superseded and sworn the above declaration that we served with him as a soldier in the revolutionary on the Florida expedition. Said Faust and Taylor served with him on the tour to Jiggins church. And we all have ever understood and believed that he served other tours of duty in the said war. Have heard his declaration read and have no doubt that he has served as long and probably longer than he has stated.

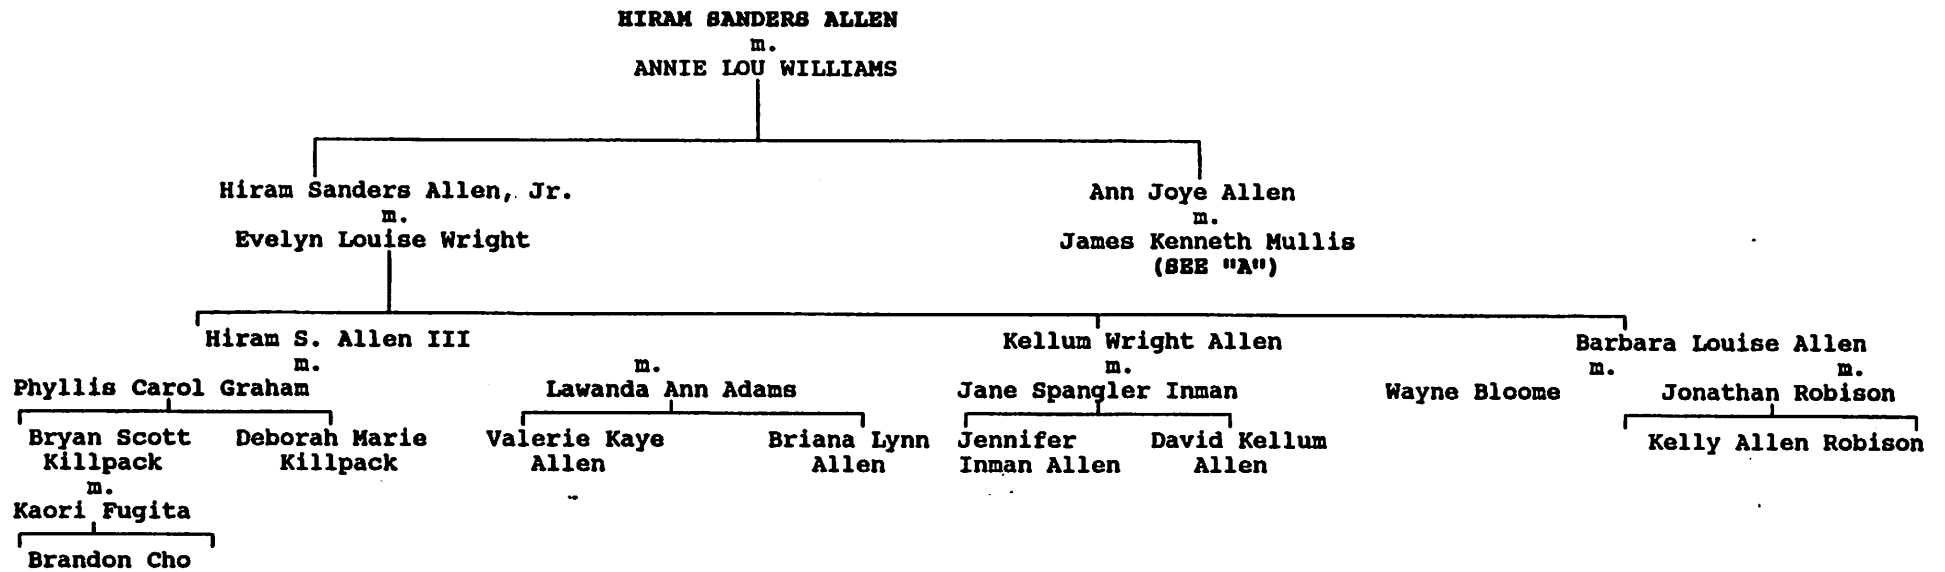

James Wilson knows of his having been first Lieutenant and commanding as such. We believe him to be seventy two years of age. Sworn to therefore the day and year aforesaid in open court.
