Robert Holley

Oh, she sought to see Him,
She's looking upon His face.
She's singing there forever,
Of His Amazing Grace.

She's on the streets of glory,
She's lifting high her voice.
Cares are past, she's home at last,
Forever she'll rejoice.

Obituary

MARY DAVIS HOLLEY was born to the late Charles and Louise Davis on March 15, 1916 in Fairfield County, Winnsboro, South Carolina.

Mary quietly slipped away on December 27, 1987 at the North Charles General Hospital after a lengthy illness.

Mary received her education in the public schools of Fairfield County, South Carolina. At an early age, Mary joined the Sweet Prospect A.M.E. Zion Church, where she faithfully executed all assigned tasks. As Mary grew in the Lord, she left Sweet Prospect A.M.E. Zion Church, and worked with the Missionaries until her health no longer allowed full participation. Mary was also a member of Mount Hebron Baptist Church and the New Mt. Hebron Baptist Church.

On December 25, 1934 Mary was joined in Holy Matrimony to Robert Holley. To this blessed union were born three daughters and six sons. One son, Woodrow, preceded Mary's departure.

Mary leaves to mourn: her husband, Robert; daughters, Louise Stevenson, Mona Greene and Darlene Bolling; sons, Robert Jr., Walter, Rudolph, Vernon and Emmanuel, all of Baltimore, Maryland; twenty-two grandchildren, eight great grandchildren; two sisters, Kathleen Moore of Blackstock, South Carolina and Earline Singleton of New York City; two brothers, Lonnie and Robert of Baltimore, Maryland; four daughters-in-law, two sons-in-law, nine sisters-in-law, seven brothers-in-law, a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

*Mary's knock at Saint Peter's Gate,
Was heard but ignored many times.
The Attendant opened the gate today,
And whispered, "Peace be thine."*
