

Frederick "Bro Boy" Hopkins

BLACKSTOCK - Frederick "Bro Boy" Hopkins, 58, died Wednesday, Sept. 30, 1998 at home.

Services conducted by the Rev. W.T. Freeman were held Saturday, Sept. 3, 1998 at Zion Hopewell Baptist Church. Burial followed in the church cemetery.

Born in Fairfield County, he was the son of Mary Goodwin Hopkins and the late Jim Hopkins. He was a U.S. Army veteran, and a member of Zion Hopewell Church. He was employed by the South Carolina Department of Highway and Public Transportation of Chester.

Surviving are his wife, Mary Hopkins; three daughters Sheila Hopkins, Cynthia H. Ruff of Spartanburg, and Stephanie H. Brown of Blackstock; three sisters, Ollie M. Bailey, Maggie R. Hopkins and Pearl Hopkins, all of Blair; two brothers, Leonzie Hopkins of New Jersey and Robert Hopkins of Blair; five grandchildren; three aunts; and one uncle.

Russell-McCutchen Funeral Home of Winnsboro was in charge of arrangements.

10/8/98