Two local sisters compete in scholarship program

Two Winnsboro sisters have been selected to compete in the 1999 Pre-Teen South Carolina Scholarship & Recognition Program.

Markenia Glover, 10, and Joi Jackson, 8, daughters of Quincy and Bobbi Martin, will travel to Greenville for the competition, Sept. 4-6.

Both girls are Superintendent's Honor Roll students at Kelly Miller Elementary School.

This will be the fourth trip for Markenia, while Joi is making her first appearance at

Sunday school and Bible study.

Pre-Teen South Carolina is not a beauty pageant, but an invitation-only scholarship and recognition event, open to girls ages 7 to 12 with a high academic ranking.

Other criteria for selection include being recognized publicly for outstanding personal achievements, volunteer services, school involvement, leadership abilities, and/or creative talents.
