

Julia Jenkins, Hollins

Tonya Evette Jenkins of Ridgeway and Antonio Martez Hollins of Blythewood were united in holy matrimony July 25, 1998 at 4 p.m. at St. Luke Baptist Church in Winnsboro.

The Rev. Roy C. Jeffcoat performed the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Daniel Hudson.

The bride wore a beautiful knee-length formal dress of gold peau de soie' satin. The bodice and hemline were covered in delicately embroidered golden bridal lace. The headpiece, which fell to a floor-length train of golden tulle, was made of the same lace, adorned with heavy beading. The bride's complete attire was designed and made by her mother.

She carried a bouquet of pink and white dried roses, accented with white carnations, baby's breath, pearls and greenery.

Elizabeth Fowler, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor.

Demetrius Hollins, brother of the groom, was best man.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the Century House in Ridgeway.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hudson of Ridgeway. She is the granddaughter of Vernell Jenkins of Mt. Pleasant.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Hollins of Blythewood. He is the grandson of Margie Hollins of Blythewood and Mr. and Mrs. David Pearson of Winnsboro.

He is a 1989 graduate of Eau Claire High School and is a self-employed brick mason.

The couple will reside in Ridgeway.
