

Fairfield Intermediate principal ranked number two in South Carolina

Jennifer M. H. Jenkins has been named as the Number Two Elementary Principal in the State of South Carolina for The Outstanding Administrator of the Year Award.

Jenkins is principal of Fairfield Intermediate School, having served in this position for six years.

As principal, she has implemented many innovative programs including alternative classes, enrichment classes, parenting sessions, a life skills program, a home visit program, an environmental program, a morning and extended day reading program

Mrs. Jenkins is the spouse of Edward J. Jenkins and the daughter of Louie H. Moore and the late Mattie R. Able Moore of Winnsboro. She is the daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Jenkins Sr. of Jenkinsville.

She has three daughters, Talya LeTrese Harper, Shana Harper Brice, and Mattia Reneé Harper; and three grandchildren, Christopher Deshe Brice, Alexis Katrina Brice and Alexander Sterling Harper Harmon.

She is a member of St. Paul Baptist Church.

Jennifer M.H. Jenkins