MONTICELLO FARMER
DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

John P. Jenkins, a farmer of the Monticello section, died at 8 o'clock this morning in his home after an extended illness of several months. Mr. Jenkins moved to Monticello from Feasterville about a year ago. His wife was Miss Sallie Crowder, also of Feasterville. Surviving are his widow, Mrs. J. P. Jenkins, two sons, F. P. Jenkins, who is connected with Wingfield's Drug store, Columbia, Va., and R. E. Jenkins of Richmond, Va., and one brother, E. J. Jenkins of Leeds.

The funeral services will be held at the Monticello Methodist church of which Mr. Jenkins was a devoted member, Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

DEATH OF JOHN P. JENKINS

John P. Jenkins, a farmer of the Monticello section, died at 8 o'clock this morning in his home after an extended illness of several months. His wife was Miss Sallie Crowder of that place. He has under way boys, three sons, Charles and Tom Jenkins, who preceded their father to the grave; R. E. Jenkins, of Richmond, Va., Frank P. Jenkins, of Columbia; one brother, E. J. Jenkins, of Leeds, beside the widow and thirteen grand children survive.

Mr. Jenkins was a noble man, whom everyone held in the highest esteem.

The funeral was held at the Methodist church of which he was a member, Saturday evening at 4 o'clock, conducted by his pastor, A. Q. Rice and Rev. Patton of Columbia. The following acted as pallbearers: F. E. McMeekin, E. E. Roberts, S. U. Robinson, C. H. Burley, C. K. McGill and T. J. Rabb.

The grave was a mound of beautiful flowers.
