amiable, charitable and confiding—a kind word for every one and a kind act when it was in her power. She had her cares and crosses to bear, but her patience shone out beautifully from amidst them all. Her sufferings in the first stage of the disease were great, but there was no complaint. And through the months when cancer was sapping her life, she feared not the end, but talked calmly of her departure and bore her afflictions with becoming resignation. She left behind her the brightest testimony of her belief and confidence in the truths of the Christian religion and of her acceptance with God. Her end was peace. G. W. G.

ROBINSON.—My grandmother, Mrs. Jane Robinson, nee Elliott, died May 16, 1885, in Fairfield Co., S. C., in the 88th year of her age. She was a woman of remarkable memory, recollecting events, and relating them with great interest, which transpired shortly after the American Revolution. She was married, while quite young, to Robert Robinson of said State and Co., and had ten children, seven of whom, together with her husband, preceded her to the spirit land. Few persons of either sex attain to her age or are permitted to see so many of their own posterity as she. These amount to about 140. She saw the grandchildren of her grandchildren several years before death. She was for many years—perhaps three score and ten, or more—a consistent member of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church. Her end was peace. Surely in her was fulfilled the Scripture, Job v., 25, 26. R. H. JENNINGS.

HILL.—Mrs. Lenna O. A. Hill was born Nov. 25, 1847, and died April 3, 1885. When young, she joined the M. E. Church, South, and several years ago she professed religion; and Minute-book be inscribed to her memory.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased, and that they be published in the SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

Tribute of Respect.

Whereas, in the dispensation of an Allwise Providence, one of our most cherished members, Mrs. E. J. Moore, has been, by the cold hand of death, removed from our midst; therefore, be it

Resolved, That, while we meekly bow to the will of our Heavenly Father, we feel that our Society has lost one of its most efficient workers, and that we will greatly miss that worthy example of fidelity to duty which she constantly set before us.

Resolved, That we tender to the bereaved family our deepest sympathies, and commend them to the care of Him who careth for them.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to her family, and to the S. C. ADVOCATE for publication; and that a page in our Minute-book be set aside to her memory.

A Christian Editor's Experience.

Rev. G. B. Lynch, publisher of the Alabama Christian Advocate, Birmingham, writes: I travel all over the State; my friends say they find your Lemon Elixir a most excellent medicine. My book-keeper and foreman both use it in place of calomel, pills, etc.

A Prominent Minister Writes.

DR. MOZLEY—Dear Sir: After ten years of great suffering from indigestion or dyspepsia, with great nervous prostration and biliousness, disordered kidneys and constipation, I have been cured by four bottles of your Lemon Elixir, and am now a well man.

REV. C. C. DAVIS, Eld. M. E. Church, South, No. 28 Tatnall street, Atlanta, Ga.

DR. L. MOZLEY: After five years' suffering from Indigestion, Great Debility and Nervous Prostrations, with the usual female irregularities and derangements accompanying such a condition of a woman's health, I have been permanently relieved by the use of your Lemon Elixir. I had been treated during
