

Dorothy Johnson 7/25/96

BALTIMORE, MD - Dorothy Small Johnson, 57, died Friday, July 12, 1996, at Hopkins Bayview Medical Center, after a lengthy illness.

Services conducted by the Rev. Paul Baker, were held Thursday, July 18, at Leroy O. Dyett and Son Funeral Home. Burial followed in Mt. Zion Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Blease Small, David Small, Thomas White, Willie Mickle, John Godfrey, and Stacy Small.

Born in Winnsboro on Sept. 4, 1938, Mrs. Johnson received her education in Fairfield County. She moved to Baltimore, Md. at an early age, where she remained until her marriage, when she moved back to Winnsboro. She and her husband, Willie Mack Johnson, operated a retail business.

In addition to her husband of Winnsboro, survivors include her mother, Pealie Mae Small, and stepfather, Thomas White, of Baltimore, Md.; two daughters, Netricia S. Lovejoy and Melinda Portee of Baltimore, Md.; three sisters, Janie Coleman and Mary Ann Small, both of Winnsboro, and Cynthia White-Braxton of Blatimore, Md.; five brothers, James Small and Blease Small, both of Winnsboro; David Small, Blease Small, and Thomas White, all of Baltimore, Md.; and four grandchildren.

Leroy O. Dyett and Son Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Dyett