$ one thousand dollars ($1000) absolutely; I also give and bequeath unto my said son John S the interest of four thousand dollars ($4000) to be paid to him during his life, quarterly by my Executors; I also give and bequeath unto him a horse and a good saddle and bridle; also a suitable negro boy, to be provided by my Executors to wait upon my said son during his life. Upon the death of my said son, the said sum of four thousand dollars, and the said negro boy to become a part of my residuary estate. Item 6 I give and bequeath unto my daughter Jane, for and during the term of her natural life and subject to the limitations expressed in the 12th Item of this Will, the following slaves, to wit, Isaac and his wife Martha and their three children Nathan, Martha and Mary; Peter and Hannah and their child King; Sandy and Juna and their three children, John, Jordan and Jack; Nelly; Betsey and her children, Bob, Lucy Ann, Nelly, Betsey, Richmond and Mary; and Rose; I have estimated the value of these slaves in a book, which my my Executors will find after my decease, wherein I keep an account with each of my children of what I have hitherto given them, and shall yet give them during my life. I further give and bequeath to my said daughter Jane, for life, the difference between the amount so found charged against her in said book and the sum of Eleven thousand dollars ($11000); said balance or difference to be invested in stocks, Bonds, or otherwise, by my Executors and the income or profits thereof to be the property of my said daughter Jane, for life. This balance as well as that of the same nature bequeathed to her sister Margaret in the next clause, is to be raised by the sale of my Waterree plantation hereinafter directed. Item 7. I have ^{also} given to my daughter Margaret wife of James P Adams, by deed of trust, twenty one slaves, also household furniture and such, all of which will be found charged ~~up~~ to her in my book as is the
