

Betty Jean Gibbs

Jones

WILKINSBORO - Betty Jean Jones, 67, died Monday, Feb. 12, 1998 at 2/19/98

services conducted by the F.G. Chisolm were held Tuesday, Feb. 16, 1998 at Mt. Zion Baptist Church in Wilkesboro. Burial followed in the church cemetery.

Born in Statesville, N.C., she was the daughter of James A. Gibbs and Mary Alice Poe.

She was a member of the Wilkesboro Missionary Society, a church choir leader and deaconess.

Surviving are daughters

Barbara F. Belton of Ridgeway,

Elizabeth Ann Jones of Wilkesboro,

Angela Jones of Wilkesboro,

Stella Ellis of Statesville,

Kaythia Hare of Capital Heights, Md.,

Sherre Heggans of Statesville, N.C. and

Dorothy Sey of Statesville, N.C.;

sons Donnie Gibbs of Ridgeway,

Kenneth A. Jones of Ridgeway,

Anthony Gibbs of Statesville, N.C.,

Johnny C. Gibbs of Statesville, N.C. and

Shew Jones of Statesville;

sisters Jacqueline Daniels of Statesville, N.C.,

Margie Waley, Johnsie Lucky of Wilkesboro,

Frances Waley of Wilkesboro, N.C.,

Frances Waley of Washington, D.C.,

Lois Gibbs of Washington, D.C.,

and Sandra Parker of Wilkesboro, N.C.;

brothers James W. Gibbs of Washington, D.C.,

William Thomas Gibbs of Statesville, N.C.,

Michael Gibbs, both of Statesville, N.C., and

David Lee Gibbs of Baltimore, Md.;

three sisters-in-law; two daughters-in-law;

one brother-in-law; and one sister-in-law.

Russell-McCutchen Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.