IN MEMORY - OUR BRIGHT STAR

We use to love to play in your long silver hair

We knew this day would come for us to say good-bye

We will miss you deeply, Aunt Charl

We will cherish our quiet conversation that we have shared

Thank you for the warm and encouraging thoughts that has lead us along the way

Now we will let you go home for now

We know that you are in the Father's care

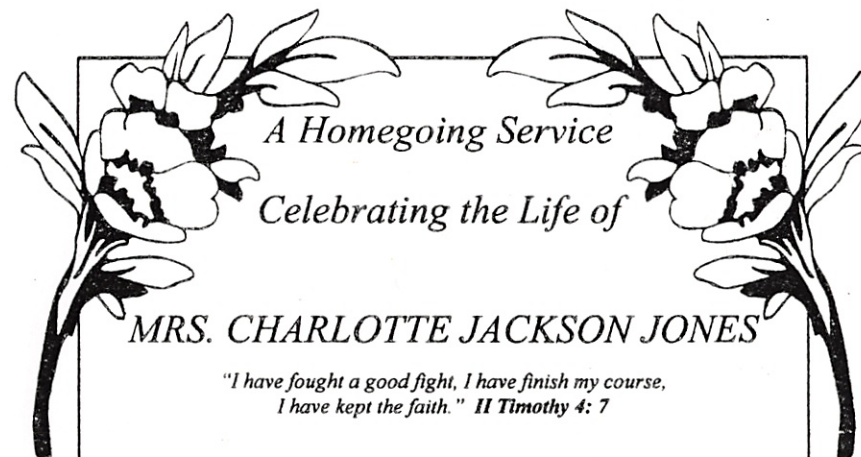

Lay down in peace and sleep

*We love you,
 Nieces, Nephews and Family*

MRS. CHARLOTTE JACKSON JONES of Fairfield County was the daughter of the late John Henry and Ellen Jones Jackson, and widower of the late Willie Mack Jones of Spartanburg, South Carolina. She went home to be with Jesus at Tanglewood Nursing Home in Ridgeway, South Carolina.

At an early age, she was baptized and joined Zion Hopewell Baptist Church where she served faithfully until she was no longer able to attend.

She was a graduate of Benedict College, a member of the A. P. and B Society, and a retired educator from the Spartanburg and Fairfield County school system.

Her fond memories will be cherished by her devoted sister-in-law, Ruby Jackson of Blair, South Carolina; nieces, Linda Cook of Blair, South Carolina, Jerry and Karen Jackson both of Winnsboro, South Carolina, Debra Gadson of Harrisburg, North Carolina; nephews, Marvin Jackson of Columbia, South Carolina, Robert Jackson Jr. of Blair, South Carolina, and Vessa Jackson of Newberry, South Carolina; and a host of other relatives and friends.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

In the midst of our sorrow, our cup truly overflows as we gratefully acknowledge the love and concern you have so fully shared with us. A special thanks to the Hopewell Family and friends for their love and support. Charl was a special gift from God, and we give thanks. Our strength is girded by our faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and we shall always remember with gratitude your kind efforts to bring us comfort.
