

Poem

*I cannot say, and I will not say.
That he is dead. He is just away.
With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand.
No more sorrow, no more pain.
He has wandered into an unknown land
And left us dreaming, how very fair it now must be,
since he lingers there.
And you - oh, you, who the wildest yearn for,
an old-time step and the glad return.
Dear Dad, Granddad, father of us all,
we know you had to leave when Jesus called.
Your smile and face we will never forget.
In the love of there as the love of here,
think of him still as the same.
I say, he is not dead - he is just away.*

APPRECIATION

Perhaps you sent a lovely card,
Or sat quietly in a chair;
Perhaps you sent beautiful flowers,
Is so, we saw them there.
Perhaps you were not there at all
Just thought of us that day,
Whatever you did to console the heart,
We thank you so much, whatever the part!
