

John Etta Lumpkin

1/30/97 Kennedy

WINNSBORO - John Etta Lumpkin Kennedy, 67, died Saturday, Jan. 11, 1997.

Services conducted by the Rev. Nathaniel Montgomery were held Tuesday, Jan. 14, 1997 at Shiloh Methodist Church. Burial followed in church cemetery.

Pallbearers were grandsons and trustees. Flowerbearers were granddaughters and missionaries.

Born in Fairfield County, she was the daughter of the late John and Edith Brown Lumpkin. Mrs. Kennedy was a member of the Shiloh Methodist Church, where she Jewell Kennedy of Winnsboro, Curtis Kennedy Muhammad of Stone Mountain, Ga., Donnell Kennedy of Winnsboro, and Michael Kennedy of Camden; sisters, Elouise McDaniel of Columbia, Verneda Owens, Jessie Pearson and Queen L. Young, all of Winnsboro; one brother, Eugene Lumpkin of Winnsboro; three brothers-in-law, Bennie Carter of Winnsboro, Spencer Kennedy and Dwight Kennedy, all of Ridgeway; 14 grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; and a host of uncles, aunts, nephews, nieces, and other relatives.

Mrs. Kennedy was preceded in death by her husband Marvin Kennedy, son Carnell Kennedy, and a sister, Willie Mae Carter.

Russell-McCutchen Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.