Kerr

Mona,

I am forwarding this to the genealogy volunteers. AS we are not fully staffed, it may take some time before you receive anything. They may want specific names or details you may be looking for as our resources are mainly composed of paper files donated from others doing research on Fairfield connections. I believe there is a Kerr file and many on different Robinsons. You can send details to the fairfieldgenealogy address above.

Subject: Kerr inquiry

Pelham,

I read your post on the Long Cane newsgroup and would be interested in information on the Kerr family. The Kerrs were neighbors to my Robinsons in Abbeville District (pre-1800's) and my Robinsons were from Augusta County, Virginia – just like the Kerrs - although I've been unable to tie them to a specific Robinson family in Augusta. Any help appreciated.

Mona
mmills@ms.metrocast.net

I believe there are paper files on all of these families. Kerrs were also in Newberry and York Counties also.

If you will send me your email address (send to me at fairfieldmus@truvista.net), I'll send you attachments of inquiries on the Calhoun members that I happen to have on my hddrive, mainly letters from other family researchers that I cut and pasted into my miscellaneous files. Direct specific inquiries from the paper files to the genealogy research room at fairfieldgenealogy@truvista.net.

Instead of calling them to task, try to work on your own feelings of self-worth. Good self-worth is built on self-knowledge, accomplishments, and things with which you are proud. It takes time to build self-esteem. The sooner you do, the better. Partner what you are trying to do, and you'll probably get help from them, as well.

I will gladly put this information into our Kerr file. I had heard that the name was pronounced as Car before, just as our Palmers who moved here from the Santee area, St. Stephen's Parish are pronounced as Pammers!

I always save all scraps of information for the very reason that they may pop up in another reference and provide valuable information.

Thanks so much for researching this.-Pelham

Kerr contact (Abbeville branch of Kerrs)

Subject: [LONGCANE] Family of Samuel Kerr and Mary Calhoun, Long Cane Area

It occurs to me that I have been talking on this thread lately about my Kerr roots, without ever having shared my own information about my particular branch of Kerrs in the Long Cane area. I'd like now to share what I know about my own Kerr family, in the hope that the information might help someone else researching this family.

My Kerr family in the Long Cane settlement descends from Samuel Kerr, who was born abt. 29 Nov. 1741 in Augusta (later Rockbridge) Co., VA. A number of good researchers of the Kerr family think--and I agree--that the Samuel Kerr who came to Abbeville Co., SC, and who married Mary, daughter of Ezekiel Calhoun and Jean/Jane Ewing, is a Samuel Kerr who was christened by Rev. John Craig of the Tinkling Spring Presbyterian congregation in Augusta Co., VA, on the preceding date. He was son of an older Samuel Kerr and his wife Margaret, according to the baptismal record. This birthdate fits well with what is known about Mary Calhoun, wife of Samuel Kerr. A number of indicators place her date of birth around 1743.

Samuel Kerr received a warrant for a survey of 100 acres on the northwest fork of Long Cane in Granville (later Abbeville) Co., SC, on 5 Oct. 1762. The plat for the survey shows the survey made in the same month; the ink is smeared over the day of the month. Beside Samuel's plat in SC Plats 7, 326, is a plat for an Andrew Kerr who is apparently Samuel's uncle, and who had sold his land in Augusta Co., VA, in the year before he begins to show up in the Long Cane records.

I have accumulated quite a few records of Samuel following his appearance in SC in 1762, and am happy to share those with anyone who would want copies, but won't mention them all here. I mention the 1762 record as an indicator of when he made the move from Augusta Co., VA, to the Long Cane settlement. H.T. Cook's book The Hard Labor Section (1993), pp. 6-7, confirms that Samuel and Andrew Kerr were in the Long Cane community by 1763.

During the Revolution, Samuel Kerr was a captain of a local militia unit, and was killed in battle in 1781, according to an annuitant's claim filed by his widow Mary. Mary was paid on 19 May 1785 and on 5 Feb. 1787, with the annuitant's record indicating that Samuel had died in service in 1781--Bobby Gilmer Moss, Roster of SC Patriots in the American Revolution (Baltimore: Geneal. Publ. Co., 1983), p. 530; and "Annuities for Persons Hurt in the Service of the State, 1778-1786" and "House of Representative Claims and Pension Reports, 1787-1796," transcribed in SC Magazine of Ancestral Research 1,2 (Spring, 1973), p. 67 and 1,3 (Summer, 1973), p. 159.

A SC Revolutionary indent record (# 677, vol 0) issued 2 May 1785 shows Samuel's heirs also being paid for his militia duty as a lieutenant in 1781 and for providing bacon for use of the militia in 1780--see Wylma Anne Wates, Stub Entries to Indents Issued in Payment of Claims against South Carolina Growing out of the Revolution (Columbia: SC Historical Commission, 1915), p. 110.

No precise date for Samuel Kerr's marriage to Mary Calhoun has survived, to my knowledge, but it appears the couple married within the year following his move from Virginia to SC, per the birthdate of their oldest child, a son named John Kerr, who was born abt. 1764. Mary Calhoun was b. abt. 1743 in Lancaster Co., PA, and d. 21 Jan.-11 Feb. 1805 in Abbeville Co., SC. She died testate with a will dated 21 Jan. 1805 and pr. 12 Feb. 1805 (Box 52, pack 1231).

Samuel Kerr and Mary Calhoun had the following children: John, b. abt. 1764, d. aft. 14 Aug. 1819, probably in Charleston; Jane, b. 8 Oct. 1768, d. 2 Nov. 1855, Bibb Co., AL; Catherine, b. 1770-1780, d. aft. 1830, Butts Co., GA?; and Ruth, b. abt. 1779, d. abt. 15 Nov. 1854, Pickens Co., SC. All the children were, to the best of my knowledge, born in Abbeville Co.

John Kerr moved to Charleston, where he was a hatter in business with Jacob Morris and William Matlack, all of these men also speculating in land in Pendleton Dist. while conducting their businesses in Charleston. I believe that John is the John Kerr who married Mary Stone in Charleston on 25 May 1787. Mary was born in Charleston in 1762 and died there abt. 14 Aug. 1819.

Jane Kerr married John Green in Abbeville Co. abt. 1788, and the couple had the following children: Samuel Kerr, Elizabeth B., Benjamin S., Ezekiel Calhoun, Mary Calhoun, Joscelin B. (a son), Lucinda, John Ewing, James H., Jane Caroline, and George Sidney. Following their marriage, John and Jane Green moved from Abbeville Co. to Pendleton Dist., where they settled on the Keowee and where John managed the upcountry plantation of Jane's uncle John Ewing Colhoun.

John's brother Benjamin Green was schoolmaster to John E. Colhoun's children. In 1818 John sold his land in SC and moved to Bibb Co., AL, where he and Jane died.

Catherine Kerr married Hugh Macklin/Mecklin/McLin, son of Hugh Macklin and Charity Wilson. Hugh and Catherine Kerr Macklin had daughters Mary and Martha--and perhaps other children of which I don't have any record.

Ruth Kerr married William Oliver, son of James and Mary Oliver, and had children James E. Oliver and Mary Calhoun Oliver.

I will gladly share all information I have on these families with anyone who would want copies.

William D. Lindsey

Information compiled by Museum of York County: "Sampler by Elizabeth Margaret Kerr, Elizabeth Margaret Kerr completed a sampler in January 18, 1819, in Winnsborough, South Carolina. The last numeral in her birth date is missing on the sampler, making her exact age unknown; it appears as 180-. Neither her teacher nor the academy she attended is known. Elizabeth's embroidery instruction included surface stitches, seen in the basket of flowers, as well as counted cross stitches. Her basket design is unlike the stylized baskets in cross stitches seen on the Bethel samplers, but instead is a free form style similar to designs worked in surface stitches seen on Mecklenburg County samplers. Her strawberry border is composed of queen stitches, like the band on Harriet Griffith's sampler that is displayed in the case on embroidery. The reverse of her sampler reveals the brilliant hues of silk thread used in her fine embroidery.

The Kerr family lived in Fairfield and York Counties, South Carolina and in Mecklenburg County, North Carolina; but Elizabeth's parents have yet to be identified. It is possible that she is the Eliza Kerr who was born about 1809 in North Carolina to William Kerr and Katy Ross, of Orange County. In 1820 there was a William Kerr living in Fairfield County, South Carolina."
