Everett Hampton Killian, Sr. (called Ev) was born Aug. 22, 1876 in Ft. Lawn area, Chester Co., SC, the 1st child born to Sidney E. Killian. On Dec. 27, 1898 Ev married Mary Martha Westbrook (Mattie) (b. Aug. 25, 1876 in Chester Co., SC). Ev farmed his farm in Chester Co., SC on Rd. 327 between Tinkers Creek and Rd. 51 and owned and ran a cotton gin. Mattie died Mar. 16, 1926 of heart disease in Chester Co., SC at their home on the south side of Rd. 327 about .2 miles from Rd. 51. This was their second home. Their first home stood behind the second until it was torn down. Ev died May 2, 1943 in their 2nd home in Chester Co., SC. They are buried in Edgemoor Cem., Edgemoor, Chester Co., SC. They had six children: (1) Sidney Arthur Killian, Sr. (called Sid), (2) Nannie Evelyn Killian (3) Mary Julian Killian, (4) Henry Halcott Killian, (5) Everett Hampton Killian, Jr. and (6) Robert Cherry Killian, Sr.

Sid Killian (Ev's 1st born) was born Mar. 6, 1900 in his parent's first house. On Jan. 24, 1923 in Chester, SC, Sid married Mary Louise Fischel (b. May 6, 1893 at 152 Wylie St., Chester, SC). They first lived at the Four Chimney House. It is on the west side of US 321 in Chester Co., SC 6.7 miles north of the Fairfield Co. line. He farmed the land of the Four Chimney House and sold cars for Keisler in Great Falls, SC. Between 1924 and 1930, they moved to Great Falls living in three houses in succession. About 1931 they moved back to the Four Chimney House and farmed full time, but the Depression hit and he returned to selling cars for Keisler and farming the Four Chimney House land part time. In the 1930's he was elected game warden for Chester Co. and served as game warden for about 15 years. It was a part time job. In his last years, he sold Chevrolets for Cockran in Chester. Then, Mae died May 17, 1954 of a heart attack in the Four Chimney House. Then in 1956, Sid began selling Fords in Chester for his sister's husband—E.B. Cox. Sid lived his last year (or a little less in Ferguson's Boarding House on Wylie St. near McAlley St. in Chester, SC. He died there Oct. 16, 1958 of a heart attack. He and Mae are buried in Evergreen Cem.,
