

Name of my father-----James Dilly Cureton

Name of my grandfather-----George William Ladd (on mothers side)

Name of great-grandfather-----Stratton

James Dilly was born Aug. 6, 1831. Died Nov. 11, 1904.

Emigrated from where-----Ireland and Scotland

To what State in America--Virginia

Abner H Cureton was born the 25th of March 1785 in Virginia. Died March 3, 1850. Age 65 years 11 months 8 days. This is my grandfather on the Cureton side.

Cause of death-----Grandmother Ladd died of Pneumonia. My mother was frail. She suffered with palpitation of the heart.

Where each is buried-----Father and Mother are both buried at Pickens, S.C.

Grandmother Ladd at Salem Presbyterian Church Fairfield, S.C.
Grandfather Ladd at Wimsboro, S.C.
Grandfather and Grandmother Cureton are buried at the Cureton burying ground near Sandy Springs Baptist Church, Greenville County S.C.

Names of my fathers brothers-----Wash, William, Paschal and Abner the youngest.

Paschal is buried at the Methodist cemetery in Basley S.C.
Abner is buried in Greenville, S.C.
My father had two brothers killed during the Civil War.

One was named Rufus.

Where Educated-----Paschal, Abner, and my father were all educated for medical doctors. My father James was the only one that came to their Profession.

To Whom each was married-----Paschal and Abner married sisters Jane and Hester

Hamilton of Pickens County S.C. James (my father) was married twice, his first wife was a Miss Bowers of Newberry, S.C.
His second wife was a Miss Catherine Lydia Ladd of Fairfield, S.C. I only know Uncle Washes wife as Aunt Mourning. I don't know who Uncle William married.

My mothers maiden name-----Catherine Lydia Stratton Ladd

My mothers father was ----George William Ladd

Her grandfather-----James Stratton

Her great-grandfather-----Stratton

Their nationality-----Irish and Scottish. My fathers father came from Wales. When-----1806 was when my great-great-grandfather Stratton came over from Ireland.

Name of my mothers brothers-----Washington, Charles and George.
Name of my mothers sisters-----Josephine and Annie