

Welcome to the Fairfield County Museum and the Players

"A Staged Reading, Interpretations, Accepted, of Catharine Ladd's

The Grande Scheme, written for the Thespian Corps in Winnsboro in 1853"

Introduced and directed by Dr. Martha Macdonald.

October 18th and 19th, 2008

PLAYERS:

Old Chester, a "frothy" old bachelor.....Bill Wedding
Tom, a servant to Chester (a "right" humorous fellow).....Rolf De Swardt
Henry and Charles, Chester's nephews.....Chris Darner and a player
William and Patrick, Irish servants of Henry and Charles.....Kay Boulware and a player
Mary and Anna, Chester's nieces.....Ester De Swardt and Corrine Reed
Susan and Ellen, waiting maids of Mary and Anna.....Marcie Wedding and Elfi Hacker
Old Martha, servant to Old Chester.....Martha Macdonald
Michael (Mike), a fiddler.....Roy Gugel on Saturday, Jeanie Bristow on Sunday

Celebrate Catharine Ladd, Winnsboro's beloved educator and friend, and enjoy the play.

Enjoy the exhibit by Michaela Pilar Brown inside the museum

We thank Pelham Ladd, Executive Director, for assisting with costumes and props,

And we thank you for coming. Enjoy the day, and stroll about!

