Mr. and Mrs. Paul Revere Leitner, who were married in a formal ceremony, December 27, 1950, at the All Saints' Church in Brookline, Mass.

In one of the loveliest weddings of the mid-winter season, Miss Suzanne Joy Wiseman of Brookline, Mass., became the bride of Paul Revere Leitner, of Chattanooga, Tenn., and Winnsboro, December 27, 1950, at 8 P.M., in the All Saints' Church in Brookline, Mass.

The ceremony was performed before a large assemblage of friends and relatives by the bride's pastor, the Rev. Junius J. Martin. The church was beautifully decorated with attractive basket arrangement of chrysanthemums and snapdragons.

The church organist presented a program of nuptial music, including the traditional wedding marches, "I Love You Truly," and "To a Wild Rose."

Walker W. Leitner of Winnsboro served as his son's best man. Ushergroomsmen were D. Reid Wiseman, brother of the bride, and Robert E. Carroll, the bride's brother-in-law, both of Brookline, Mass.

Maid of honor was Miss Jane Carol Wiseman of Brookline, sister of the bride, who was costumed in fuschia taffeta appliqued with velvet. She wore a headpiece of ostrich feathers to match her gown and carried a spray of heather.

Mrs. Robert Carroll of Brookline was her sister's matron of honor. She was similarly dressed to the maid of honor in apple green taffeta, with matching ostrich headdress, and also carried a spray of heather.

Little Elizabeth Leitner of Winnsboro, sister of the groom, was the flower girl. She was becomingly gowned in pink taffeta and carried a dainty nosegay of pink sweetpeas and tea roses.

The brunette bride, who was given in marriage by her father, Marcus Wiseman of Brookline, was attired in white Chantilly lace over satin entrain. Her veil was of French illusion caught with white ostrich feathers, and she carried a bouquet of Calla lilies.

Mrs. Marcus Wiseman, mother of the bride, was dressed in coral crepe, with which she wore black ostrich plumes and a corsage of gardenias.

Mrs. Walker Leitner, mother of the groom, wore cocoa crepe trimmed in sequins, a sequined matching hat, and a brown orchid.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents at 2 Strathmore Road, Brookline, Mass. During the evening the young couple left for a honeymoon trip through New York, Washington and the South. The bride's traveling costume was a Christian Dior, grey, wool suit, complemented by a pink velvet hat, and an orchid corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Leitner will make their home in Chattanooga, Tenn., where he is employed in insurance business.

Mrs. Leitner attended the Kathleen Dell business college in Boston, and her husband is a graduate of Duke University in the class of 1950, where he majored in Business Administration. He was a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity. During World War II he served with the U. S. Army in Korea.
