LEITER.

Christopher Leitner (born about 1710 and died about 1768), married before coming to the Dutch Fork in Newberry County, as his petition for bounty grant of 250 acres on Crims Creek, dated Cotober 2, 1752, indicates he had a wife and three children at that time. Another grant for 100 acres on Second Greek was made February 12, 1755. On March 20, 1762, his son, Michael, signed a bounty grant which shows that his father died between 1762 and 1769. Shares of property wors divided between sons, John and Michael; and since there was an other shild, who may have died before that time, or others who were daughters already provided for, only the two dividend shares are given in the grant.

One Leitner descendant has advanced the theory that Christopher Leitner was one and the same as Joseph Leitner, who settled in the Sulzburger Colony at Ebenezer, Georgia, about 1733 (his full name being Joseph Christopher Leitner). There is nothing to bear out this theory, so far found, for Joseph Leitner died and was buried at Ebenezer Church, Ga. before 1769. It appears that Joseph may have moved up into the Dutch Fork in South Carolina about 20 years after settling at Ebenezer, Ga., but inconceivable that he used different Christian names in each State, and if he moved back to Georgia resumed his name of Joseph. All of the settlers who located in the section near Broad River called Little Datch Fork about 1750-55, came from Pennsylvania, except a few who had come up from the German settlement above Charleston; and it is believed that Christopher came from Pennsylvania with the others.

There was a George Lightner (note difference in spellinh) who had come from Pennsylvania before 1760, who may have been a son of Christopher or a brother. Cance from Jermany

Leaving widow Mary Ann and Children: Henry A., John F., Andrew Thomas, Sarah Caroline, Polly Catherine and a step-daughter Rosannah Sohumpert. Another Michael Leitner died after 1820, who lived in the Dutch fork of Newberry County. It is not known if he was married. He was probably a son of John Christian and a nephew of Major Michael.

The Leitner Coat of Arms are as follows:

A quartered shield; 1st and 4th quarter fluer de lis on Azure blue; 2nd and 3rd quarter black with a gold lion; rampant, with crown of gold. In center of shield a small silver shield with a red rose. The Crest: a demi-lion, rampant, on Knight's helmet.

The Arms indicate the Leitners were in the Crusades. The Leitners lived in Hungary, Germany, Switzerland, and Holland, but probably originated in Switzerland or Hungary at the time of Crusades.
