

Fairfield Native Wins High Honor

Leitner Named President
Chattanooga Jaycees.

Paul Leitner, attorney, son of Walter W. Leitner and Mrs. Irene Lewis Leitner of the Bethel section of Fairfield, was elected president of the Chattanooga (Tenn.) Junior Chamber of Commerce in a close election last month. He won over two other contenders.

Mr. Leitner was graduated from Jenkinsville High School and from Duke University with an A. B. degree in 1950. He received his LL.B. degree from McKenzie College of Law in 1954 and is affiliated with the firm of Folts, Brammer, Bishop and Thomas of Chattanooga. He is a member of the board of the First Methodist Church there.

He is married to the former Miss Susan Wiseman of Boston, Mass., and has two sons.
