Hope the following will be of some help:

The parents of Marshall Lemons were Benjamin Franklin Lemons and Martha McGill; they lived in Whitney, SC.; he was born about 1860, and she was born March 3, 1861.

Marshall was born Dec 29, 1885. His first wife was Marantha (Minty) Woods by whom he had two children, Homer and Etta when he married Aunt Daisy Dickerson.

The Marshall Lemons family lived in Whitney, Union, and Spartanburg.

Aunt Daisy married Marshall Lemons; her family was from Fairfield Co.

Her father was James Butler Dickerson, son of Marion (Mel)

Alexander Dickerson and Armenia Isabella (Isabel) Mobly. Her mother was Martha Mae (Mattie) Fee, daughter of John Thomas Fee and Martha Jenkins.

The first record I have is of Benjamin Dickerson who married Millie (Permelia) Lyles, the daughter of Ephraim Lyles and Elizabeth Anderson. They lived on Rd. 99, Blair, SC, near Cool Branch Baptist Church.

If you would like to have that Genealogy Report I will be glad to send it to you.

I have the following in my database:

When Aunt Daisy married Marshall Lemons he was a widower with two children, Homer and Etta. Aunt Daisy raised them as her own, and we always thought of them as our cousins.

During World War II, Aunt Daisy had seven (7) sons in the U.S. Navy, and in her window hung seven stars, one for each of her boys.

I am attaching a Lemons Genealogy Report (13 pps) which will give you much more information.

If I can be of further assistance, please let me know.
