

State of South Carolina }
County of Fairfield }

I, John M. Lemmon being of sound mind and disposing memory but not in good health, do hereby make and declare the following to be my last will and Testament;

1st I will and devise to my grand children, Mary Belle Lemmon, and Kathleen Lemmon, the children of my deceased son J. Law, Lemmon, deceased, share and share alike, as tenants in common, all that certain piece, parcel or tract of land on waters of Mill Creek, and Jackson Creek, in the County of Fairfield and State aforesaid, containing two hundred and thirty acres more or less, bounded by lands formerly belonging to Williford, H. B. Doty, and by lands of Mrs. Maggie C. Crawford, and by the public Road leading to Wimbboro, and having such special shape, marks, and boundaries as are represented by a plat thereof made by T. C. Boulward and dated Nov 3, 1900.

2nd I will and devise to my daughters, Janie Lemmon, and Belle Lemmon, share and share alike as tenants in, common, my Home place where I reside, containing four hundred acres, more or less, on the condition that they shall pay to my daughter Sue Cathcart, the wife of James Cathcart, One hundred and eighty dollars, and to my daughter-in-law Agnes Lemmon the widow of my deceased, son Robert Lemmon, One hundred and eighty dollars, each of said sums to bear interest, if not paid within a year after my death.

3rd I will and devise my Lauderdale place, containing three hundred and fifty acres, more or less, lying on the west forke of Little River, to my daughter Sue Cathcart, and Agnes Lemmon, my daughter-in-law as tenants in common to be equally divided between them.

4th I will and bequeath one set of bed room furniture to my daughter Belle Lemmon, and one set of bed room furniture to my daughter Janie Lemmon, and the rest of my household furniture to be equally divided between my children, William J. Lemmon, Sue Cathcart, Janie Lemmon and Belle Lemmon, and Mary A. Millina.

I will and direct that my Executors sell my other personal property, including, mare, and mules and farming implements, except my buggy and harness, and the proceeds of the sale thereof, be divided among my children, who are living, Agnes Lemmon, and the children of my deceased son J. Law Lemmon, who shall take between, them a child's share, the share their father would have been entitled to if he were living, I will the above excepted buggy and harness, to my daughters Janie and Belle.

I have made deeds to my daughter, Mary A. Milling, and my son William J. Lemmon, to their portions of the real estate, which I considered their respective shares.

I hereby appoint my son William J. Lemmon, and Frank C. Clarke, the Executors of this will, witness my hand this the tenth day of October, in the year of Our Lord, one thousand, nine hundred and six.

Signed, by said Testator as his last will and testament, in presence of us, who in his presence and in the presence of each other, at his request, have subscribed our names
as witnesses.
