

Miss Crawford, Mr. Lewis Married in Presbyterian Church

A double-ring ceremony uniting in marriage Miss Gwendolyn Nell Crawford and Donald Keith Lewis took place on Sunday, June 15, at four o'clock in the afternoon, in Salem Presbyterian Church. The officiating minister was the Rev. Kenneth L. Barnes.

Arrangements of mixed flowers and brass candelabra enhanced the beauty of the chapel. Debbie Jolly, organist, played selected nuptial music, and soloist Doug Jolly sang "Wherever Thou Goest" and "The Lord's Prayer".

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest B. Crawford, Jr., of Blair. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs.

James Clifton Lewis of Blair and the late Mr. Lewis.

Miss Susan Taylor of Blair was the maid of honor. She wore a gown of yellow floral design and carried a nosegay of mixed flowers.

The bride was escorted by her father and given in marriage by her parents. She wore a wedding gown of white satin featuring a V-neck yoke with seed pearls at the bodice and sleeves and a band of seed pearls at the wrists. The dress fastened in the back with self-covered buttons. It ended in a cathedral train. The long flowing veil of bridal illusion was attached to a crown of seed pearls. Her bouquet was of mixed spring flowers.

Tommy Lewis, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and ushers were Sam Edenfield, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Bob Bozard, both of Winnsboro.

The bride's mother wore a floor-length gown of cinnamon green and an orchid corsage.

The mother of the bridegroom chose a gown of ice blue. She also wore an orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Assisting with serving and entertaining were Mr. and Mrs. David Yongue, Mrs.
