

Miss Lewis Is Maid of Cotton

Here you see pretty, 20-year-old Jane Bethea Lewis, who was selected as Fairfield's Maid of Cotton on September 22. She will represent the county in the state contest annually held at Clemson College, on October 10-11.

Miss Lewis, the daughter of Clerk of Court Walter W. Lewis and Mrs. Lewis (the former Florrie Jane Bethea of Dillon), was graduated from Mount Zion Institute in the Class of 1954. She was a member of the Beta Club and the Student Council, took prominent parts in the junior and senior class plays, served for two summers as assistant Scout counsellor at the Congaree Girl Scout Camp. Her "senior superlative" at Mt. Zion: "Friendliest girl in the class."

Miss Lewis is now a junior at Winthrop College where she is majoring in English and taking a minor in Fine Arts. (See story in County Agents' column on page 8). (Photo by Ferguson)
