

Lewis graduates from FBI academy

Lt. Keith Lewis, along with 266 law enforcement officers, graduated from the FBI National Academy program at Quantico, Va. Sept. 12.

The 190th session of the National Academy consisted of men and women from 49 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and 19 international countries.

Internationally known for its academic excellence, the National Academy offers 11 weeks of advanced investigative, management, and fitness training for selected officers having a proven record as a professional within his or her agency.

FBI Director Louis J. Freeh was the principle speaker at the ceremony.

Lt. Lewis earned 15 college credits through the University of Virginia by taking courses in forensic science, mass media, leadership, legal, and criminal psychology.

Lt. Keith Lewis

The session began June 27 and commenced Sept. 12.

South Carolina is allowed two slots for police officers to attend each session.

10/2/97