

IN MEMORY

MARJORIE ROBINSON LEWIS

Marjorie Robinson Lewis passed away August 25, 2006, at age 93. Marjorie was a loyal and dedicated member of Greenbrier United Methodist Church and the United Methodist Women's Organization. During her long membership she filled many official positions in the church and the UMW and served on numerous committees.

Marjorie lived a life of faith and trust, seeking to follow the teachings of Christ in her everyday life. In accordance with the Apostle James, she believed that "faith without works is dead;" and many were the recipients of her good deeds. She had a talent and resourcefulness for raising funds for charitable gifts that were disbursed through the United Methodist Women.

Marjorie was modest and avoided the limelight. She preferred to work behind the scenes and perform the tasks that would ensure the success of a project or an event close friends remember Marjorie for her swiftness in motion and action leaving her peers struggling to perform at her pace. We thank God for Marjorie's Christian life that left an imprint in the lives of those who knew her.

Whereas, Mrs. Lewis will be missed by all in the Greenbrier Community, it is our wish to make formal acknowledgment of our appreciation for the substantial contributions that she made to the Greenbrier United Methodist Church and the United Methodist Women.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED as a small token of our esteem that:

we record these resolutions in the minutes of the United Methodist Women; we send a copy to each member of her family and a copy to the Herald Independent for publication; and we make her granddaughter, Lisa Carver, a lifetime member of the Greenbrier United Methodist Women.

—Greenbrier United Methodist Women