Mrs. Nancy Wiseman, wife of John Wiseman, died at the residence of her husband in Marshall Co., Miss. on the morning of the 6th of April, 1860. Mrs. Wiseman was in the fifty third year of her age, she was born in Laurens District, S. C., from which place she removed with her father at an early age to Alabama; there she grew up, there she married, and in the 22nd year of her age she made a public profession of religion in the O. S. Presbyterian Church under the ministry of Dr. J. H. Gray. ... she with her first husband removed to Mississippi; near Starkville; there she remained in connection with the O. S. Church until the organization of the A. R. Church which she and her husband connected themselves with. For the last 7 or 8 years of her life she was a member of the A. R. Church at Mt. Carmel, Miss.

Mr. E. White died at his residence at Marshall Co., Miss. of inflammation of the lungs on the morning of the 27th of April, 1860. He leaves a widow to mourn his loss. From the nature of his disease he was deranged to a certain extent most of the time. The attending physician said he was getting well, until a short time before he died, very few supposed him dangerous on this account. ...He made a public profession of Christ some 10 or 12 years since, but had been overtaken by intemperate habits and excluded from the communion of the church and we hope that this had a salutary effect on his soul. He came to his right mind before he died, and expressed resignation to the will of God.

Married on Tuesday morning, 9 o'clock, April 24, 1860, by W. R. Dickey, preacher of the M. E. church, South, Mr. James Wiseman to Miss Adaline S. Kirk of Marshall Co., Miss. at the residence of Mr. Wm. Harrell.

May 18, 1860

Died in Maury Co., Tenn on the 2nd of April, Mrs. Sallie E. Kerr, second daughter of Andrew Scott, Esq.

Died of puerperal fever in York District, S. C. on the 7th of March, Mrs. Sarah C. Caldwell, aged 24 years. The deceased early connected herself with the church at New Hope, Fairfield District, under the pastoral care of Dr. Boyce, where she remained until she married, at which time she removed to the residence of her husband in York District, being in the bounds of Sharon congregation.

Mr's Josephine Little, wife of Cap't J. L. Little, died in Columbia S. C., July 4th 1876. The writer did not know them.

Gen'l Antônio Loper Santa Anna, died in the City of Mexico June 20th 1876. He was a very distinguished and troublesome man. It was from Mexico under his jurisdiction and government that the war, between Mexico and the United States, was declared in 1847, and successfully carried on by the latter power, to the utter defeat of Mexico, and her loss of California and other valuable territory. After which intestine commition among the people and gonverment, was disastrous to Gen'l Santa Anna; and in consequence of which, he was deprived of office and power, and was expelled from his home and country. For many years last past, he has been endeavoring to regain position, but has ever failed, and now lies at rest in his own Mexico, where he was permitted to end his days. What a lesson is here taught! Who will heed it? Aye; there's the question.

Mr's Andrew Crawford Jr, died in Columbia So. Ca. July 17, 1876. She was the wife of M'r Andrew Crawford Jr, and has passed from among loved ones.... A tribute to her character is hereunto attached from the Columbia Register. [clipping] "Mrs. Fanny Hopkins Crawford, wife of Andrew Crawford, Esq., was buried yesterday afternoon from the family residence on Arsenal Hill ... to Elmwood Cemetery. Mrs. Crawford was a native of Richland County, and was educated in Columbia. She had been married about four years ...."
