FIRST COURT OF GRANVILLE COUNTY. This writer is convinced that the first court ever held in GRANVILLE COUNTY was at the home of EDWARD JONES in the lower edge of what is now WARNEN COUNTY at the "BOILING SPRINGS", later called SHOCCO and JOHES' SPRING, and not at the home of COL, WILLIAM EATON as some writer has stated. Both Golonel Laten and Edward Jones, who appear to have been the moving spirits at this birth of COLONIAL GRANVILLE COUNTY were present. On page 43 of this work, the writer thinks he is in error in stating that JOHES lived in the Morthern part of FRANKLIN, but now believes that his home was over the line in WARREN. These statements are based on the record discovered in the old minute book of the court detailing briefly the account of the first two meetings held, and upon data found among the notes of Gol. Ashe relating to the JONES and MACON FAMILIES which disclose that the JOHES and MACONS (descendants of GIDEON) lived in that viwinity. Some of the facts relative to this meeting and relative also to COL. EATON will be found on page 43 hereof, to which reference is made.

GIDEON MASON who met with the first court of GRANVILLE COUNTY at the home of EDWARD JURIES on September 3, 1746, was a son in law of EDWARD JOHES, having married his daughter PRISCILLA, by whom he had ANN HART MACOH (m. CAPT. JOHN ALSTON), SARAH MACON (m. CAPT. JOHN HAWKINS), MARTHA MACONE (m. JOSEPH SRAWELL), JOHN MACON (m. JOANNA TARE), HARRISON MACON (m. HANNAH GIRMN), HATHAN-INL MACON (m. HANNAH PLUMMER), and GIDEON HUNT MACON, who m. (1) MARY GREENE, (2) MARY HARTWEIL. GIDEON MACON was deceased before 1763, and his widow PRISCILLA (JOHRS) MACON married JAMES RANSON on February 9th of that year. MARTHA, the sister of GIDEON MACOH married ORLANDO JOHES, son of the HEV. ROWLAND JOHRS, of Braten Parish, in YORK COUNTY, VIRGINIA, and her daughter FRANCES JOHES, whe married COL, DANDRIDGE was the mother of MARTHA WASHINGTON. For the names of the children of EDward JOHES see page 43 (this book).

JAMES PAYNE another one of the persons present at the first meeting of the first Court of GRANVILLE COUNTY on September 3, 1746, was a brother in law of HUWARD JUHES, he having married ALICIA JOHNS, a sister of HDWARD, long before coming to North Carolina, as shown by the will of HD-WARD JONES, SR. in Farnhess Parish, in Virginia, recorded in 1715.

WEST MARRIS, another member of this little band of GRANVILLE COUNTY pioneers was also related to EDWARD JOHES. WEST was the son of EDWARD HARRIS who died leaving a will in ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY, Virginia in 1734, whose Gistor JICH HAMRIS married a JOHES. The wife of WEST HAMRIS is said to have been MARY TURNER. This West Harris, of GRAHVILLE was the ancestor of HOH. ISMAN HAB-RIS, the belowed Governor of Tennessee. While the MARRIS genealogists have failed to farnish us with a list of his children. it is more than likely that WEST MARRIS was the father of ROMERT MARRIS who, in the days of GOVERHOR DORES appears to have been a kind of "political Boss" of GRANVILLE COUNTY. As a member of the Assembly ROBERT MARRIS must have said some uncomplimentary things about Dobbs, for which he was hailed before the Governor and penalized by having his name left off the lists of Justices for Granville County, whereupon his more fortunate fellow-citizens who had been reappointed, refused to serve.

ROBERT POTTER, the orphan who is mentioned with his brother THOMAS and sisters POLLY and SALLY, and for whom JAMES DOWNEY at a meeting of the GRAPVILLE COUNTY COURT on November 8, 1787, was a son of ABRAHAM POTTER, and his subsequent history, while not very creditable, as same is related by the Historian Wheeler, yet his meteoric rise in GRANVILLE COUNTY and MORTH CAROLINA pelitics to a seat in Congress, his fall back into the position as a member of the State Legislature, his trial for indignities against the peace and cignity of the State of North Carolina, and his final departure from the Old North State, headed for Texas, provides a historical " thriller " for people who like such nervatives. On his ervival in Texas he became almost immediately a confident and an a second of the second to a still of the second to second the second to a second to a second second second

EDWARD JUNES. The first Court ever held in GRANVILLE COUNTY was at his home in the lower part of what is now WARREN COUNTY, as has been montioned before in some of these notes (see pp 43 and 209). His will was proved in 1750 and that of his son BUGAR JUNES in 1761. At the time these wills were filed neither the extinct county of BUFE, nor what is now WARREN COUNTY had been established, so thay were necessarily recorded in GRANVILLE COUNTY. Had thay died after 1764 the records would sppear among the records of BUFE later filed in WARREN COUNTY. The wife of EDWARD JUNES was ABIGAIL SUGHE, a member of a HUGUENOT family, from WANININTOWN, from which GAFT. SUGAR JUNES obtained his Christian name. EDWARD JUNES was the son of another EDWARD JUNES whose will was proved in HIGHMOND COUNTY, VIRGINIA, September 2, 1715, in which be named four sons and one daughter, SANFORD, JOHN, EDWARD, GHARLES and ALIGIA JUNES the wife of 1746, or a son of that FATME who was present at the first court of Granville County in 1746, or a son of that FATME who was present at the first court of GRANVILLE County in 1746, or a son of GENARD OF GRANVILLE, died in RIGHMOND COUNTY, VIRGINIA, in 1717, and in his will names his "cousin" ANNE PATME who was present at the first OWARD of GRANVILLE County in 1746, or a son of that FATME who was present at the first court of GRANVILLE County in 1746, or a son of GENARD of GRANVILLE, died in RIGHMOND COUNTY, VIRGINIA, in 1717, and in his will names his "cousin" ANNE PATME. KUMARD JUNES (son of EDWARD of GRANVILLE County) married GRAUEL JUNES, sinter of WILLIAM HENNET of Morthampton County, H. C. and VIRGINIA), who married WILLIAM HILL (son of GREEN HILL (b. 1714, the son of HENRY APPLEWHITE HILL) who married WILLIAM HILL (son of GREEN HILL) married MANY WARD, Married ELIZADETH ENDER COUD-LOW and had a daughter SARAM APPLEWHITE JUNES who married a nephow of GEN, JAMES HOEBERSON of Nashville, Tenn., (JAMES COENTILL, Hon. The lineage and family history of the GRAVES FAMILY of GRANVILLE, CARWELL and CHATHAM ather NATHANIEL WILLIAMS. ics, NORTH CARDLINA is very interesting and dates back to one THOMAS GRAVES who came to

NIA and settled in ACCOMAG and NORTHAMPTON COUNTIES, before the latter County was erected f the former. He is said to have arrived in VIRGINIA before 1630, and appears to have had ast THREE CHILDREN:

1) RICHARD GRAVES RALPH GRAVES (2) (3) ANN GRAVES.

The descendants of RICHARD GRAVES were perhaps as numerous as those of his brother GRAVES, but this compiler has not attempted to identify and follow them. Their names on second are accounted for as his descendants, when they do not apparently belong with those is brother RALPH. Dombtless there were many of them in NORTH CAROLINA, smong them, doubtbeing THOMAS GRAVES of SPOTTSTIWANIA COUNTI, Virginia, who is known to have come there &

ANN GRAVES, doughter of THOMAS GRAVES and sister of RICHARD and RAIPH GRAVES became ras HOT a descendant of RALPH. rife of the celebrated HEV. WILLIAM COTTEN, of ACCOMAC COUNTY, WERSINIA, whose sister man-CAPT. WILLIAM STORE, who became GOVERNOR OF MARTLAND. VERLINDA COTTER, the daughter of HEV. LAM COTTEE married THOMAS BURDETT and eventually settled in CHARLES COUNTY, MARYLAND, where THOMAS STONE sought refage in his old age after a hectic career in Maryland Politics and rrow escape from the wrath of the second or third LORD BALTIMORE and his crowd. The BURDETTE HARRISONS of MANYIAND intermarried and the name VERLINDA is perpetuated in both families.

DANIEL. I want to make a correction in the note on page 213 about the DANIEL FAMILIES OF WILLE COUNTY. All that is said in that note is correct except that the JAMES DAWIEL who mar-LIZAHETH WOODSON was BOY SEMILTY OF GOODSLASS, The SHERIFY of GOOCHLAND was still an-IT JAMES DANIEL (my wife's ancestor) who married JEAN RELEO. All of his sons except one td to GHERNE COUNTY, GEORGIA, and all THREE of his sons married CUMNINGHAMS and one of his phters married SAMUEL CUMNINGHAM. There were in fact FIVE or SIX JAMES DANIELS in GOOCHLAND, LIA and PRINCE EDWARD and I will attempt to identify all of them when I take up the story of DARTEL FAMILY in its pupper place in this book.

and were one of the content of the part of the prof and the second and the second of the ENGLISH parentage born in the COLONY OF VIRGINIA, was a brother in law of the first RALPH GRAVES (son of THOMAS and brother of ANN who married HEV. WILLIAM COTTEN). They both married daugh ters of the emigrant JOSEPH CHOSHAW, who patented considerable land in TOHE COUNTY and along QUERRY'S CHARME. In one account of JOEEPH GEOSHAW (Vol 2 W.& M. p. 270, first series) it is said that he married at least three times (1) the widow FINCH, (2) ANNE HDDENS and (3) MARGARET, the widow of DANIEL TWEER, His children were by his first wife. They were: (1) HENJANIE GROSHAW, (2) JOSHPH CHOSHAW, (3) RACHEL CROSEAW who married RALPH GRAVES, (4) MARY GROSEAW who married MR. HENRY WHITE and (5) UNITY GROSEAW who married Mast. Col. JOHN WENT.

RALPH GRAVES (the first) died MAY 9, 1667. He and his wife RACHEL CHOSHAW, according to the account mentioned, had four childrent

(6)	AND GRAVES
(7)	RAIPH GRAVES
(8)	WILLIAM GRAVES
(9)	MARY GRAVES.

RACHEL (CHOEHAW) GRAVES, after the death of her husband, married second one RICHARD BARNES, by whom she probably had children who married into the COTTER FAMILY, some of whom came to NORTH CAROLINA.

(8) WILLIAM GRAVES, son of RALPH and RACHEL may have been an ancestor of some of the GRAVIS FAMILY in SPOTTSTLYANIA COUNTY. This fact has greatly complicated the lancage of some of the members of this family and has almost run some of the genealogists crany in trying to straighten them out. This compiler has kept his eye on the RAIPH GRAVES set, because he has been sue from the beginning that they were the GRANVILLE set.

(7) RALPH GRAVES (son of RALPH GRAVES and RACHEL CHOSHAW, and nephew of LIEUT. COL. JOHN WEST and also of HENRY WHITE, of QUEEN'S CREEK in YORK COUNTY) married his first cousin. UNITY WHITE, daughter of HENRY WHITE and his wife MARY CROSHAW. Thanks to the unwavering courtesy and benevolent generosity of my friend HON. HEVERLY FLEET, tireless genealogical antiquarian, of RICHMOND, VIRGINIA, I do not have to depend on "family genealogists" for verification of this alliance between the GRAVES, CROSHAW and WHITE families. The following order of the YOHK COUNTY, (Virginia) Court appears in the proceedings of said court on MARCH 26, 1688, on page 105 of Vol. VIII of the YORK COUNTY RECORDS and contains much information relating to the relationships in mestiont

> "WHEREAS, JOSEPH WHITE and WILLIAM WHITE, sons of HENRY WHITE, late deceased, and WILLIAM DAVIS, as marrying MARY, one of the said daughters, and RALPH GRAVES, as marrying UNITY, one other of the said daughters of the said HENRY WHITE, setting forth by their petition to this Court that the said HENRY WHITE, by his last will and testament did make COL. JOHN WEST and BRYAN SAYTH the executors, and did give and bequeath into his daughter REBECCA WHITE thirty pounds of tobacco and a certaine part of his estate as may appear by a division of the said estate amounting to forty-cight pounds, forty-one shillings and eight pence Sterling and One Thousand Right Hundred and THIRTY POUNDS of tobacco, and in cattell 4 cowes under ten yeares old, 2 steers three years old, two steer yearlings, 1 heifer cowe calfe. And in case the said HIBECCA dye under age and before marriage then her part to bee equally divided amongst the surviving children. And now, it appearing to this Court that the said REFECCA WHITE dyed under age and before marriage, it is therefore ordered that COL. JOHN WEST, the surviving executor of the said HENRY WHITE do forthwith pay unto the said JOSEPH and WILLIAM WHITE, WILLIAM DAVIS and RAIPH GRAVES as aforesaid, the sum of Thirty Pounds Sterling, * * given by said will and also all other the estate * * both money, tobacco and cattell according to the age above mentioned and sett down in the said division and according to the true intent of the said HETRY WHITE'S written will, etc."

Further proceedings of interest in this connection is shown on pages 27 and 28 of the same record above quoted in 1687, where a deed is recorded from JOSTPH WHITE to ED-LUND JENNINGS to property on ST. ANDREWS CREEK in York County, including a tract of land on which there was a mill. This deed is interesting on account of the names of the wit -Resses who were HEV. HOWLAND JOHES (minister of BRUTEN PARISH and kinsman of GIDEON MACON and the GOOCH FAMILY of GRANVILLE COUNTY), JOHN GAILOR and WILLIAM SHERWOOD (Distinguished early lawyer of YOHK and JAMES CITY COUNTY). The wife of JOSEPH WHITE, who signed the deed with him was MAGDALENE.

NOTE - DANIEL WILLIAMS. I have found another copy of an abstract of the will of DANIEL WILLIAMS, of GRANVILLE COUNTY (other than the one previously mentioned) in which, in addition to the sons HENRY, JOHN, JAMES, JOSEPH and DANIEL (who married ANN HENDERSON) there there appears the names of two daughters: MARY WILLIAMS who married a MITCHELL, and MARIA WILLIAMS who married a man named GOODMAN. On page 227 there is a note which says that MARY HEN-DERSON, daughter of SAMUEL HENDERSON married a JOAE MITCHELL, His brother probably married MARY.

tab faretions p. 15); that she inted Millian (1905-1971) and bits wife WARGARET MADPIN had a son WILLIAN (the fourth) who married WARGARET MORDAN, and that this last WILLIAM had a sistor ELIZABETH HARRISON she sarried WILLIAM RATCLIFFE, and that two of the some of WILLIAM RAT-CLIFT and ELIZABETH HARRISON married daughters of the fourth WILLIAM HARRISON and his wife MARGARET JORDAN. The BATCLIFFE family were QUALTERS at the time the second WILLIAM HARRISON (1650-1719) married ARME RATCLIFFE, if the following record is correct:

Page 738 Valentine Papers (Friends Meeting Records): RICHARD JORDAN, son of THOMAS JORDAN of Constantusk descased, marriage to RESECCA RATCLIFF, dementer of RICHARD BATCLIFTS of TRAVESCOE NECK, married in the house of her father, the sixth month (JUNE) in the year 1706. The witnesses were JOHN JOHNAN, brother BORNAN, brother JAMES JOHNAN, MARGARET JORDAN, mother, MART JORDAN, MARGARET JORDAN, RICHARD BATCLIFF, ELIZABETH BATCLIFF, nother, BICHARD RATCLIFFE, brother, JOHN RATCLIFFS, brother, WILLIAM SCOTT and others,

On page 258 of BODDIE'S 17TH CENTURY ISLE OF WIGHT we are told that JOHN HARRISON was married to a sister of WILLIAM BRESSIE, a QUAKER, who was an overseer of the will of MICEDIAS HILL, and that SARAH LUCE was a sister of JUHH JENNINGS who married one of the dementers of MAJ. HIGHOLAS HILL, and owned lands adjoining JOHN HARRISON in ISLE OF WIGHT COUSTI November 6, 1719.

The foregoing items (on this and the page preceding) are set out somewhat in detail by the compiler to show certain things in connection with the MARRISONS who descended from HARMON HARRISON.

The will of WILLIAM BRESSET discloses that there was an older JOHN MAR-RISON, then perhaps long deceased (1700), namese wife was MELECROUGH or MTLEOROUGH. As his son WILLIAM HARRISON was a "brother" of the old QUARER and contemporaneous with him, he was married and had, perhaps grown sons by 1668, when ERESSET bought lands from SANUEL HASVELL in that year.

The notes show that both WILLIAN MARRISON and JOHN HARRISON must have married sisters of WILLIAM BERSSIE, and further show that WILLIAM MARRISON was alive in 1713 when he sold 100 acres of his inherited Lands (from BRESSIE) to MATTHEW JURDAN,

The JOHN HARRISON who married MTLBORDUCH HILL could not have been JOHN, the son of RICHARD, (1648-1690) who married MAHT HALL, of course and had one lone daughter MARY, who married JOHN HUBBAHD and a son RICHARD who died in 1722 unmarried.

The WILLIAM HARRISON who married a BRESSEY and was "called brother" in ERESSET'S will was cortainly not the WILLIAN (1650-1719) and married MART HUBBARD or MART HAN, and became the ancestor of all of the "Scimino Harrisons".

If what is pointed out so far was ALL the evidence we would not have a peg to stand on. The paterial evidence is the part that discloses the relationship between these WILLIAM BRESSET MARRISONS and those of QUEEN'S CREEK in YORK COUNTY, which may not be brashed aside or ignored.

JUEN FORDAH, som of THOMAS JOHDAH, lately deceased, is a legatee under the will. He was a brother of MATHEW JORDAN, who in 1702 married the widow SUSANNAH BHESSEY, the sister of HEV. BOWLAND JOHES. Also a brother of ROBERT JOHNAN, grandfather of MARGARET JOHNAN who married the fourth WILLIAN HARRISON of QUEEN'S CHEEK.

In other words JOHN HARRISON (son of HARMON HARRISON?) had two sons, JOHN and WILLIAM HARRISON who married sisters of WILLIAM BHESSEY, the QUARGE of LEVY HERE. In one sense they were brother's in law of REV. ROWLAND JCHES, minister of ERUTON PARISH. That brought then mighty close to QUENS'S CREEK.

They were co-logatees with the JOHDANS of Mansemond and CHECKATUCK.

They were cortainly stop-sons of MATTHEW JORDAN, great uncle of MARGARET JOHDAH, who married the fourth WILLIAN HARRISON of QUEEN'S CREEK.

They were in the same family circle with the BATCLIFFES who married into the JOHNANS and the HARRISONS of LEVI NECK as well as the MARRISONS of QUERN'S CHEER, all of Whom were QUAKERS.

They had a brother (evidently) named MARTIN MARRISON, or else MARTIN was a son of either JOHN or WILLIAN (the sons of JOHN and MTLEORDUGH HARRISON. Thus we are able to present from the HECORDS the manes of at least two and maybe THENE sons of JOHN HARRISON, son of HARBIGOF, alive in ISLE OF WIGHT COURTY in 1700, 92 years after the ancestor first cene to VIRGINIA. *

. THESE BRESSET HARRISONS, although so little is said of them on the records were non of substance and importance and the each of their lives reverberated in GRAEVILLE COUNTY in its Colenial days. JOHN HARRISON (JR) was called "my kinsman", and WILLIAN HARRIS-SON "my brother" in the HHESSEY will in 1701. BODDIE tells us that JOHN married a sister of William Brossie, WILLIAM HARRISON way have married a sister of SUSANNAR, his wife. If so he was in fact a brother in law of HEV. HOWLAND JOHNS of HEUTON PARISH.

HEV. HOWLAND JUILES, of BRUTON PARISH had a son ORLANDO JORES. He had several sistors, one of whom married WILLIAN BEESSIN, as stated. OBLANDO JOHNS married MARTHA MACON. MARTHA MACON was the sister of GIDEON MACON, who married FRISCILLA JUMES, domester of RUMAED JOHES (p. 43 this book), and among the children of GIDHON MACON and his wife PRISCILLA JOHES was the distinguished MARRISON MACON.

5. Indad MARISON, then I belle so have been a laughter of MARSON MARS have placed as such, sarried JAMES HILL, a brother of MELBOROOGH, who married JOHN MARRI was perhaps a younger child of the family, for she was living in 1880 in Perquiman's Pre North Caroling thed, when she and her husband attanded the wedding of CHRISTOPHER FIG ANY ATWOOD at the house of FRANCIS TONES (THOMAS!). Hinshaw's Quaker Wencalogy Vol. 1 had a daughter named HANNAN HILL who married JAMES FERIERD, and emother daughter who mar JOHN PINNON (See p. 126 "Index" this volume).

6. VILLIAN HARDISON and 2. THOMAS HARRISON, sons of MARMON HARDISON were opinion, the ansestors of most of the MAERISONS who lived in ST. ANDERES PARISH in ERUM. COUNTY, Virginia, MEMBERIN PARISH, GHERNSVILLE COUNTY, and later in MORTH CAROLINA. In 1 are codies of data tending to substantiate this statement, including the will of at least HARMON MARRISON and his wife SARAH and snother HARMON MARRISON, son of a EMERANCE.

7. THOMASINE MARRISON, daughter of MARMON HARRISON married RIGHARD WHITH ADDINGTON PARISH, Gloucester County, as witness the following notes, from Book No. 7, Rapy

> FOV. 25, 1682 : THOMASINE WHITEHRAD, wife of MR. RIGHARD WHITHERAD, GET., of ARBINGDON PARISH, GLOBOSTOF County, Virginia, appoints her loving friends, ME. DANIEL GAINES, EMUNED CRASE, and ME. Witnesses were Samuel Orrill and MAHT Whitehead. Recorded in Rappahannock, County, Virginia, November 24, 1682.

NOV. 23, 1682: MR. RICHARD WHITEHRAD, GERT, of AD-BISGDON PARISH, Gloucester County, appointed his loving friend MR. JAMES MARRISON, of Rappahannock County, Virginia, his power of attorney to asknowledge in his stead a dood of sonvoyance of land lying in Rappahannosk County, Virginia, to THOMAS CONNOR, of Ware Parish, Gloucester County. (Said Thomas Connor paid 12,000 pounds of tobaseo for this land).

Other records show that GEORGE MOTT mentioned with his brother JOHF in the note above, died, and shortly afterwards his widow (about 1683-4) married MR. JAMES MARRI GENT, to them RIGHARD WRITTHRAD gave the power of Attorney, along with his wife TROWASIES. JAMES RARRISON WAS a grandson of HARMON HARRISON, and RIGHARD WHITEREAD had married his AN

(5) HENEY GRAVES, JE. On page 344 it will be seen that the compiler has identified this HENEY GRAVES, JE. as the con of HENEY GRAVES and the grandson of the HENEY GRAVES who married MARY WILLIAMS, the sunt of JUDGE RICHARD HENDERSON and of JUDGE JOHN WILLIAMS, of GRANVILLE COUNTY. From the STARCT MAP it will be noticed that HERRY GRAVES, JR. Lived in the GOSHEN DIS -AFH GRAVES, his sister. AENEY GRAVES, SR., his father, inclusion of the Sature and the arried WARY AFH GRAVES, his sister. AENEY GRAVES, SR., his father, lived in the upper part of the Latern area of the present GRAVILLE COUNTY in the ISLAND CREEK DISTRICT. HALFE GRAVES, his uncle, also lived in that part of the county. BALPH GRAVES, of YORK COUNTY, VIRGINIA, the married UNITY WHITH was the Great Great grandfather of MEHHY GRAVES, JR. of GRANVILLE COURTS.

(6) THOMAS SATTERWHITE was a native of YORK COURT, VIRGINIA, where so many of the eld families of GRANVILLE COUNTY, EORTH CARDLINA, originated. He married a stop-daughter of JUDGE JOHN WILLIAMS, the daughter of his wife AGHES by her first husband MR. KEELING. In the will of AGHES WILLIAMS, the relict of JUDGE JOHN WILLIAMS in 1803 in GRANVILLE COUNTY, she men tions EDRACE and EDVIN and PEGGY and EARCY SATTERNHITE as bor grandchildren. These were the names of four of the children of THOMAS SATTERTHITE, who had married her deschtor, who was also a half-sister of AGATHA WILLIAMS who married COL. BORENT BURNOW. (See page 213).

The SATTREVEITE FAMILY scous unquestionably to have had its VIEGINIA origin in YORK and GLOUCESTER COUNTLES. In 1646 and 1647 the name of MARSHALL SATTERINITE appears as confessing judgments in the YORK COUNTY court, and in JULY, 1687, MICHAEL SATTERSHITE of Mop Jack Bay (in GLOUCESTER, confessed an indebtedness in YORK COURTY. In 1742 THOMAS SATTERNELTE gave a guit claim for cortain negroes to PETER RICE in YORK COUNTY. (Page 2313 Valentine Papere).

ME. W. S. MORTON, of FRIECE KIMARD COUNTY, VIRGINIA, gives an account of this CHESLEY DANIEL family that makes him the son of enother JAMES DANIEL, who was the Sheriff of GOOCHLAND COUNTY, some ten years earlier, and whom he says married ELIZARDER WOODSON. He is mixed up in the matter. First, the Sheriff of GOCCHIAND was not the JAMES who became after wards the SHERIFF OF ALBEMARIE, and the JAMES DAFIEL who married ELIZABETH WOODSON was HOT the Sheriff of GCOGHLAND. The Sheriff of GOOCHLAND was JAMES DANDEL who married JAMES KELSO and with died in PRIMCE EDWARD COUNTY, VA. In his account Mr. MORTON gives to JAMES DANIEL (Of Goochland) the same children named in the will of the ALERMANTE JAMES DAFIEL in 1961. (See p. 212

(93) SAMUEL HENDERSON (Searcy Meg). An account of his family, together with a list of his children, will be found on page 221. About two miles South of MIDDLEBURG in what is now Yance county there is dirt road turns to the right off the highway, which leads to ASHLAND, the old HENDERSON HOME. It is a two story house, three bays wide, has a doorway on the right hand bay and a story and a half addition on the right with end chimneys matching the twin chimneys on the later the most house. The badded methombanding to waited white and both enves and bay and a story and a half addition on the right with end chimneys matching the twin chimneys on the left side of the main house. The beaded weatherboarding is painted white, and both caves and window headings have well-designed cornices. A later porch extending the entire facade is sup-ported by Roman Doric columns, supplemented by log posts. The place is said to have been built 200 years ago (1746) by SAMUEL HENDERSON, farmer and miller, who was one time High Sheriff of GRANVILLE COUNTY and the father of numerous children, including JUDGE RICHARD HENDERSON.

The KITTERIL family came to North Carolina from NANSEMOND and ISLE OF WIGHT County, Virginia, and first settled on HENNETT'S CHEKK in BERTIE PRECINCT, perhaps, and moved to the GRANVILLE COUNTY territory probably in about 1745. Jonathan Kittrell sold lands on HENNETT'S CHEKK in 1718, and his wife was ANN (See INDEX to Hathaway's p. 86). See also page 87 for an account of JONATHAN KITTRELL.

GEORGE F. PIERCE, of HANGUEX COUNTY, Georgia, known and loved by members of his denomination throughout the entire South. See items from the records of Franklin County on page 207 relating to transactions of PHILLIP PIERCE, and his family.

(133) EDWARD JUNES (Searcy Map). See the records of GRANVILLE COUNTY and its earliest organisation, beginning on page 209 for information in regard to EDWARD JUNES. There is also an account of EDWARD JUNES on page 43 (Of the INDEX SECTION) in connection with an account of COL WILLIAM EATON and his genealogy. He was the father of PRISOIN JUNES who became of the wife of GIDEON MACON. Any purported account of the early history of GRANVILLE COUNTY could not be writ-ten without mention of EDWARD JUNES and his descendants who exercised a wide influence on the destinies of the Province of North Carolina, and particularly GRANVILLE COUNTY.

(140) WILLIAM EATON. A genealogical account of his family, briefly outlined is to be found on page 43 (Index Section of the "Lost Tribes"). He was from YOHK COUNTY, Virginia to North Carolina. The roster of his GRANVILLE COUNTY regiment will be given later.

(145) ISHAM HARRISON (Searcy Map) was a son of JOHN HARRISON and his wife SARAH DAN-IEL, daughter of JOHN DANIEL who died in Granville County in 1763 (See page 212). The ISHAM HAR-ISON who was on the tar list of GRANVILLE COUNTY in 1788 may have been a son, as he was only as-sessed with one poll, and at that time may not have been married. (145) ISHAM HARRISON moved to South Carolina, along the Pacolet, with some of the HENDERSONS and others, as did JOHN HARRISON, who may have been another son of ISHAM. For an account of the descendants of JOHN HARRISON and his wife SARAH, see beginning on page 255. wife SARAH, see beginning on page 255.

(153) NATHANIEL MACON was born in 1758 and died in 1837. He was three times Speaker (163) NATHANIEL MACON was born in 1758 and died in 1837. He was three times Speaker of the House of Congress of the United States, from 1801 until 1807, and a member of the United States Senate from North Carolina from 1815 until 1828. He is said to have been one smong North Carolina's foremost proponents of the political principles of Thomas Jefferson. His old home was at Buck Springs, four miles from the town of Waughan, in what is now WARNEN COUNTY. The place Was restored in 1937 and stands in a great oak grove. NATHANIEL MACON was a grandson of EUMAND UDNES (133 on the Searcy Map), his mother having been PRISCILLA JUNES who married GIDEON MACON, whose sister MARTHA MACON married ORIANDO JONES, son of HEV. HOWLAND JUNES, Winister of HHUTOM PARISH in YORK COUNTY, Virginia. This MARTHA MACON, the sumt of Nathaniel Macon, was the grand-mother of MARTHA WASHINGTON, wife of the first President.

(155) CHRISTMAS RAY. He brought suit against DRURY GLOVER in GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C. in 1765. He was a descendant of THOMAS RAY and MARY CHRISTMAS, of YORK COUNTY, Virginia, and a collateral kinsman of the writer.

(162) GIDEOF MACOF. He was a son in law of EDWARD JONES and is mentioned above. (190) SUGAR JONES was a son of KUWARD JONES mentioned above. He married SARAH FRANKLIN, who after his death married NATHANIEL, the son of SAMUEL HENDERSON.

THE HARRIS FAMILY OF GRANVILLE COUNTY. N. C.

(136) WEST HARRIS (Of the SEARCY MAP), one of those who met at the home of EDWARD JOHES, on December 2, 1746, to complete the organization of the original GRANVILLE COUNTY, was a member of an old VIRGINIA FAMILI (p. 209). This WEST HARRIS was related to KDWARD JONES, to GINEON MACON, to the LANINES, JENNINGS, HILLS and BENNETTS, but whether in an attempted review of the notes pertaining to this family of HARRIS, the writer can make this plain to the reader is questionable and I am sure will be questioned by others for the reason that the theories I will advance run counter to some of the writers who have attempted to set down the annals of the HARRIS TANTLY.

CAPT. THOMAS HARRIS, who on February 25, 1638, received a patent to 820 acres of land then incom as LONGFIELD, but later known as "CUMLES" on the JAMES RIVER, was the first AMERICAN abcestor of the GRANVILLE COUNTY HARRIS FAMILY. This land was afterwards claimed by NATHANIEL BACON "the Bebel" through WILLIAM HARRIS FAMILY. This land was alterwards claimed by NATHARLE BACON "the Bebel" through WILLIAM HARRIS, a son, (pp. 1387 and 1959 of the Valentine Papers, quowing from the Records of HENRICO COUNTY), who sold the land to ROER GREEN who promoted the first pilgrimage of Virginia settlers to the ALEEMARLE SOUND section of North Carolina. (Did & Dodd's Old South, p. 210). The name of the wife of CAPT. THOMAS HARRIS was DIANA. His widow, after his Geath, married (2nd) WILLIAM FOSTER, and finally, THOMAS WHITE. With her son JUEN she settled in North Carolina (p. 58 this work), perhaps at the instance of ROGER GREEN. She map-ried WILLIAM FOSTER in 1675. The children of CAPT. THOMAS HARRIS and his wife DIANA were: (He died 1665) (3-274 NCH&O Reg.)

1. WILLIAM HARRIS

2. JOHN HARRIS (Den. SARAH m. NATHANIEL NICHOLSON). 3. THOMAS HARRIS (d. 1672) married ALICE WEST 4. NICHOLAS HARRIS (York County, Va.)

EDWARD HARRIS, probably a brother of CAPT. THOMAS HARRIS, of Virginia. On November 23, 1638, in LONDON, ENGLAND, EDWARD HARRIS was the sole legates, the executor and "kinsman" of JUDITH BERNETT, the widow of RICHARD BENNETT, who died in VIRGINIA, August 28, 1626. It is not improbable that JUDITH BERNETT, the widow, was born a HARRIS. (See Boddie's 17th Century Isle of Might pp. 270-272.). The same authority shows that this RICHARD BERNETT, whose wife was possibly JUDITH HARRIS, was an uncle of GOV. RICHARD BERNETT, and brother of KUWARD BERNET the fether of STURIESTRA HARRIS, was an uncle of GOV. RICHARD BERNETT, and brother of KUWARD BERNET father of SYLVESTRA HILL and MART BLAND; thus the connection of the HARRIS FAMILY to the HILLS and BENNETS shows up. This connection is supplemented by other connections that will follow. CHRISTOFHER HARRIS, who on January 30, 1659 in YOHK COUNTY, with JOHN STANOP (?), ROB-ERT HARRISON and JOHN COTTEN, appraised the estate of FRANCIS WHELLER, the step-father of ROB-ERT HARRISON'S wife, was perhaps also connected with this HARRIS FAMILI of London and Virginia. The name of CHRISTOFHER HARRIS appears on the tax rolls of GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C., and CHRIS-TOFHER HARRIS WILLIAMS was the father or Grandfather of HON. JOHN SHARP WILLIAMS, of Mississippi. (See WILLIAMS family herein.)

3. THOMAS HARRIS who married ALICE WEST, LATER SOJOURNER, and left a will in ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY in March, 1672 (Vol. 7, W & M. (1) about p. 200-240), in which he montioned only two sons JOHN HARRIS and THOMAS HARRIS, his daughter MARY "and other children". It is in the review of his family that we again run across the connection with the HILLS and EENNETTS, with evidence to add to what has been given. From other records we find he had children:

> 5. JOHN HARRIS 6. THOMAS HARRIS (W111 Oct. 9, 1688) 7. MART HARRIS m. ANTHONY SPILLTIMBER. 8. MARTHA HARRIS married JOHN JENNINGS.

MAJ. NICHOLAS HILL, whose wife was SILVESTRA, the daughter of EDWARD BENNETT (uncle of Cove Richard Bennett) and JOHN JENNINGS, were named Executors of 3. THOMAS HARRIS' will. JOHN JERNIEGS (it is presumed) after the death of MARTHA HARRIS, married one of the daughters of MAJ. NICHOLAS HILL, and a grand-daughter of KUWARD BENNETT.

6. THOMAS HARRIS, whose wife was apparently a MARTIN, left will in ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY, VIRGINIA dated OCTOBER 9, 1688, which will shows that he had the following children:

10.	EDWARD	HARRIS
11.	THOMAS	HARRIS

- 12. ROBERT HARRIS
- GHORGE HARRIS 13. MARTIN HARRIS 14.
- 15. WILLIAM HARRIS
- 16. JANE HARRIS married a JONES. 17. ANNE HARRIS

The oldest son, KDWARD HARRIS, was made the executor of this will, according to the abstract which was found by the writer. In the account of the descendants of the children of the testator, the name of ROBERT HARRIS, who played so prominent a part in the political his-tory of GRANVILLE COUNTY along during the last half of the wighteenth century, has not been found, but that is because only the descendants of 10. EDWARD HARRIS have been found (and not all of them). This ROBERT HARRIS of GRANVILLE certainly belonged in this family.
