<sup>1</sup> June 24, 1703, there was a suit depending in York county, between Nathaniel West and Martha, his wife, executrix of Gideon Macon, late of New Kent county, deceased, and Richard Packe, of London, merchant. Martha is said to have married, thirdly, a Mr. Bigger, and the Goochland records name, about 1700, a Macon Biggars. We miss from the register Gideon Macon's daughter Martha, who married Orlando Jones, and was the grandmother of Martha Custis, wife of George Washington, but her tomb is at the old Macon place, on the Pamunkey—"Prospect Hill."

<sup>2</sup> These entries are on different pages, and both differ from the Family Bible, which has Nov. 11, 1694. The register, from its unsteady dates, bears internal evidence that it was not kept from day to day.

MACON FAMILY.

James Ma-

con, son of Gideon Macon and Martha his wife, of New Kent county, was born October 28, 1701. Mary Macon, daughter of Col. James Macon and Elizabeth his wife, daughter of Augustine Moore, married William Aylett, and had issue Philip Aylett, born 1767, died 1831.

Thomas Macon married Sarah Madison, of Orange county, born August 17, 1761. William Macon, one of the committee for Hanover county, in 1775.

John Macon, son of Gideon and Martha Macon, was born December 17, 1695. In 1729, John Macon, of St. Peter's Parish, New Kent, deeded to Alexander Moss 400 acres, patented in Goochland county by said Macon. He was probably father of Henry Macon of Cumberland, who married, about 1764, Frances Netherland, daughter of Wade Netherland, and widow of John Carlyle. Henry Macon's will, proved in 1783, names two sons, William and John, but they seem to have been issue of a former marriage. William Macon, of Cumberland, who died in 1796, was probably a son of Henry Macon. He married, first, Ann Mayo, daughter of William and Anne Mayo; second, Sally Woodson. Issue by first wife, Henry and William Mayo Macon, and daughters Mary and Rebecca Mayo Macon. Issue by second wife, Sally Woodson Macon.

Frances (Netherland) Macon, widow of Henry Macon, left her property to Katy Todd Macon, daughter of John Macon.

Gideon Macon married in Amelia county Rebecca Walker April 9, 1761. Security Edmund Walker. The will of Edmund Walker shows that he was from New Kent county, and that Rebecca Walker was his daughter.

Lancelot Macon, married Hannah Walker, ward of Wood Jones, December 9, 1768.

Hon. Nathaniel Macon was the son of a Gideon Macon and Priscilla Jones his wife, daughter of Robert Jones and Abigail Sugun. Robert Jones was an officer in Bute county, N. C., now Warren county. Nathaniel Macon married Hannah Plummer, and had issue (1) Betty Kemp, who married Wm. John Martin, (2) Signora, who married William Eaton—all of North Carolina. The only surviving grandchildren of Mr. Macon now living are Robert A. Martin, of Petersburg, and Mrs. Signora Crenshaw, of North Carolina.

The will of Gideon Macon, father of Hon. Nathaniel Macon, of the county of Granville, N. C., dated 20 Dec., 1761, and proved Feb., 1762, names issue (1) Harrison, (2) John, (3) Nathaniel, (4) Gideon, (5) Ann Alston, (6) Sally, (7) Martha, (8) Mary. Names wife Priscilla, and appoints his friend William Johnson exor. Witnesses, John Clack, — Parham, Joseph X. King.

MACON.—Judge Charles Alston Cooke, of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, writes as follows in correction of page 276,* Vol. X., of QUARTERLY: "On page 277 it states 'Hon. Nathaniel Macon was the son of a Gideon Macon and Priscilla Jones his wife, daughter of Robert Jones and Abigail Sugun. Robert Jones was an officer,' &c. Now then, it was Edward Jones (not Robert) who was the father of Priscilla; and Abigail 'Sugan' (not 'Sugun'). Robert was the son of Edward and Abigail. I have a copy of the will of Edward Jones, and obtain my information from it, as well as 'family information.' The will was probated in 1752, in Granville county (that part in which he lived and died; afterwards, in 1763, became Bute, and in 1779, Warren)."

"And in naming the executors of Gideon Macon, you omit the name of his son-in-law, John Alston, the husband of his daughter Ann. I hope you will make these corrections for the sake of accuracy in our family history. My interest in this matter is due to the fact that I am descended from two of the daughters of Priscilla, who was the daughter of Edward (not Robert) Jones."
