

1st Generation

I James Mann came from Ireland to Charleston S.C. on the ship "Pennsylvania" on Jan 6, 1773. He was around the age of 16 or 17 yrs. old. At this time he was given a royal grant of 200 acres on Crooked Run Creek in the present day Fairfield Co. However, he was unable to pay for the property. We have no record of who he married or the number of children they had.

James Mann died 1818. A copy of his will is filed in A.C. Dept of Archives & History. Also according to the records in the Archives James participated in Am. Revolution. The plot for him is marked Irish. (Source - Royal Plot in plot book in Archives) 1790 census - Fairfield Co. James Mann - 2 white males 16 - 2 white males under 16 + 4 females.

From S.C. Historical Magazine V. 2 James Mann enlisted Sept. 18, 1775 at age 18 + he was 5'6" tall.

Old home of Herbert + Bessie Mann was built for Thomas Franklin + Carrie Watt Mann when they were married in 1874. When they married the kitchen, dining room + partry were in basement. Cooking was done over open fire in fireplace with an arm that swung over fire holding an iron pot. They also used iron skillet with legs to set over hot coals. Later kitchen + dining room were moved upstairs.

During Am. Revolution Lord Cornwallis with his troops camped above the old home about 1/4 mi. After they broke camp + left. Grandfather walked in area + found big crack pitcher, iron brick with hoop on it used to tie houses to. + a big iron cannon ball which he brought home. These items still remain in family
