Hello James,

I have attached the Mathis lineage we have in our family files.
Also, attached is the only deed record I was able to locate.
There were no probate, plat or other deed records under spelling Mathis.

Hope this helps.....

Eddie

Linda & Eddie,

Can you tell me the date I gave Eddie the $20 Fed. Res. Note for 2017 dues, so I can write the date in my password file on my computer with the website password? Maybe the date is on the application. I cannot find that I recorded my payment in my black book (my diabetes journal). I thought I did and I might find it if I knew the date.

Eddie do you have our shared ancestors memorized? I checked Gov. Coleman's book and on page 59 (middle of page) he says "... Frances [Mathis] Coleman, the wife of 1764-1774, had died after signing the deed of the latter date, but we do not know when nor where [she died]." The "where" would be Halifax Co. NC or Fairfield Co. SC. On page 57 "Mrs. Jennie I. Coleman, writing in 1906, ... stated that Robert Coleman [Jr.], the husband of Elizabeth Roe, came from Halifax County, NC to Fairfield County, SC in 1775". I think this Tory family (Robt. Coleman Sr. & Jr.) came to Fairfield Co. with wives Frances Mathis & Elizabeth Roe. I therefore THINK Frances Mathis is buried (in the Robt. Coleman Sr. cem. with her husband later buried beside her) in Fairfield Co. The will of Tho. Mathis Sr. (Frances Mathis Coleman's pa) was made & probated in Halifax Co. NC, so he died in NC. If any of his children came to Fairfield Co. esp. if his sons came, then my Mathis ancestral surname becomes a Fairfield Co. surname that I am justified in listing.

Gov. Coleman records Frances Mathis Coleman's siblings via her father's will on page 63. Eddie can you check grants & deeds to see if any of her brothers had land in Fairfield Co.? They are probably in order of birth, Charles, James, Isaac, Thomas Jr., & Benjamin Mathis. I have lost or mislaid my index to the Union Historical Society Land Grant Atlas of the Enoree River valley or I would check it for Mathises. I bet if I look a bit I could find a link on the society website to deeds and grants of Ken Shelton.

Thanks James. I will leave the Mathis name on.

Password is changing; the old one works for now. I plan to send an email out either today or tomorrow with the 2017 password.

Linda,

You may leave Mathis on my surname list. They are ancestral to my Colemans. I do not think any Mathis came to Fairfield and that is why I left it off, but Robert Coleman Sr. died in Fairfield Co. in 1795 and his wife (Frances Mathis) may have died here or in NC/VA.

Is 2016FCGSY2 really the 2017 password. It would be helpful if the link to the website was in this email. Did I overlook the link?
